on a Sunday or public holiday, then, on or before the first day thereafter on which their office is open), in the year in which the Examination is to be held, an application, in the handwriting of the Candidate, on the prescribed form.

A minute and detailed knowledge will not be looked for in this part of the Examination. But its aim will be to test how far the Candidates have studied at first hand the chief productions of the greatest English writers, and are acquainted with the leading characteristics of their thought and style, and with the place which each of them occupies in the history of English Literature.

The Examination in this part will require from the Candidates a more minute acquaintance with the history of the English Language and Literature, as illustrated in the chief works produced in each period, and will be based to a considerable extent, but by no means exclusively, on certain books specified each year by the Commissioners. The names and other indications placed beside the dates are intended to suggest the general character of the literary development of the period, and, consequently, the natural limits of the Examination. NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 26th September 1913.

No. 15-9.—The following papers regarding the proposal to throw open the ports of Madras, Calcutta and Chittagong for the embarkation of pilgrims to the Hedjaz are published for general information :—

No. 1991, dated the 23rd March 1912.

From—J. L. RIEU, ESQ., I.C.S., Secy. to the Govt. of Bombay, General Dept..

To—The Secy. to the Govt. of India, Dept. of Education.

AT the meeting of the Legislative Council held at Bombay on the 16th instant, the Hon ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola moved the following resolution in connection with the regulation of pilgrim traffic :—

"That with a view to secure greater facilities to the pilgrims and to ensure reasonable rates of passage money from Bombay to the Hedjaz, the Governor in Council be requested to represent to the Government of India the desirability of throwing open for the embarkation of pilgrims the ports of Calcutta, Chittagong and Madras."

2. In support of the resolution the Hon'ble Member pointed out that before the advent of plague, Bombay, Karachi, Calcutta, Chittagong and Madras were the ports notified by the Government of India for the embarkation of pilgrims. But since then Bombay was the only port of embarkation, and as a consequence immense number of pilgrims came to Bombay from distant parts of the country. Now that the detention of all outgoing pilgrims in a single central camp for quarantine purposes was no longer necessary and that the only restriction observed was a medical inspection for which the concentration of the traffic on a single port was not a matter of importance, the necessity no longer existed of closing the other ports to pilgrim traffic. It had already been proposed to open Karachi for the purpose, and he thought that if other ports were also opened, the difficulties which beset the Bombay authorities in connection with the regulation of the pilgrim traffic would in a great measure be removed. He contended that there was no chance of the excessive rates now charged by the steamship companies engaged in the pilgrim traffic being appreciably reduced unless the stream of pilgrims were diverted to other ports besides those of Bombay and Karachi.

3. The reply to the resolution on behalf of the Government of Bombay was to the effect that so far as Bombay was concerned the opening of Calcutta, Chittagong and Madras to the pilgrim traffic was desirable, as it would relieve the Bombay authorities of much trouble during the pilgrim season, more especially with regard to the repatriation of pilgrims who were landed in Bombay in a destitute condition, but that a resolution such as the one under consideration should have been moved in the Imperial Legislative Council and not in the local Legislative Council, as the latter were not in possession of the reasons, that might exist against the removal of the embargo on the three ports referred to. It was further pointed out that the proposed opening of Karachi as a port of embarkation would go an appreciable way towards relieving the congestion of pilgrim traffic in Bombay and thus improving its conditions. Eventually, the Hon'ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola accepted a modification of his resolution to the effect that the Government of Bombay be requested to enquire of the Government of India whether there were any reasons for not throwing open the ports of Calcutta, Chittagong and Madras for the embarkation of pilgrims. The resolution thus modified was agreed to by the Council.

4. In pursuance of the above resolution I am directed to enquire whether there is any objection to the opening of Calcutta, Madras and Chittagong to the pilgrim traffic so as still further to relieve the great pressure of the traffic in Bombay.

Nos. 817-818, dated the 13th May 1912.

From—THE HON'BLE MR. L. C. PORTER, C.I.E., I.C.S., Secy. to the Govt. of India, Dept. of Education,
To—The Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Madras.
„ Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Municipal (Medical) Dept.

IN continuation of this Department endorsement No. $\frac{817}{818}$, dated the 24th April 1912, forwarding a copy of a notification regarding the opening of the port of Karachi to pilgrim traffic to the Hedjaz, I am directed to enclose a copy of a letter from the Government of Bombay, No. 1991, dated the 23rd March 1912, and to say that the Government of India will be glad to receive the views of the Government of $\frac{\text{Madras}}{\text{Bombay}}$ on the proposal to throw open the port(s) of $\frac{\text{Madras}}{\text{Calcutta and Chittagong}}$ for the embarkation of pilgrims.

No. 1515, dated the 11th December 1912.

From—THE HON'BLE MR. A. G. CARDEW, C.S.I., I.C.S., Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,
To—The Secy. to the Govt. of India, Department of Education.

I AM directed to reply to the letter from the Department of Education, No. 817 (Sanitary), dated the 13th May 1912, asking for the views of the Government of Madras on the proposal to throw open the port of Madras for the embarkation of pilgrims to the Hedjaz.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council has given the matter his careful consideration, and has, in particular, instituted inquiries to ascertain whether the port of Madras, or a port on the west coast of the Presidency, would prove to be a suitable embarking place for pilgrims. The main difficulty is that neither Madras nor any west coast port is so situated as to attract a preponderance of the pilgrims from the Presidency. The latter would only serve the west coast, and Madras would serve neither the west coast nor the northern districts of this Presidency. Pilgrims from Malabar and South Canara, who form the bulk of the pilgrim population of this Presidency, would, if the port of Madras were thrown open for pilgrim traffic, naturally prefer the cheaper route viâ Bombay, and pilgrims from the northern districts and Hyderabad would find it cheaper to go to Bombay direct instead of to Madras. The number of pilgrims visiting the Hedjaz from the southern districts of the Presidency is so small as to be negligible.

3. The letter of the Government of Bombay of the 29th March 1912 refers to (1) difficulties in connection with the regulation of pilgrim traffic and (2) the excessive rates charged by the steamship companies on account of Bombay being the only port of embarkation. On the first point, I am to observe that the reduction in the numbers who travel vid Bombay, if a Madras port were opened, would be inconsiderable for the reasons mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, and as regards the second point it is argued per contra that embarkation from Bombay offers the advantage that owing to competition between the different steamer agencies it is often possible to procure passages at very cheap rates. However this may be, His Excellency in Council considers it doubtful whether the running of pilgrim ships from Madras or elsewhere in this Presidency would affect the Bombay rates or would offer a cheaper route to pilgrims, in view of the comparatively small number proceeding from this Presidency.

4. I am further to state that it has been ascertained that there is no spontaneous demand by the Mussalman community of this Presidency for the opening of a port of embarkation in the Madras Presidency and His Excellency in Council considers that until such a demand arises there is scarcely a case for altering existing conditions.

No. 92-Sany., dated the 9th January 1913.

From—JAMES DONALD, ESQ., I.C.S., Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Municipal Department,

To—The Secy. to the Govt. of India, Dept. of Education.

I AM directed to reply to Mr. Singh's letter No. 818, dated the 13th May 1912, on the subject of a proposal from the Government of Bombay to throw open the ports of Calcutta and Chittagong for the embarkation of pilgrims to the Hedjaz.

2. The port of Calcutta has been entirely closed to pilgrim traffic since the year 1897. In that year by notification No. 625, dated the 20th February 1897, the pilgrimage to the Hedjaz was altogether suspended for the season, and Calcutta has not been re-opened to traffic since that time. By notification No. 2495, dated the 20th November 1897, the port of Chittagong was declared as the only port open to pilgrim traffic from this Province, and it continued to be the port of embarkation till the year 1903. In that year a few pilgrims who had entered the pilgrim camp at Chittagong left it to proceed by the Bombay route which they found to be shorter and cheaper as well as more convenient, and when no other pilgrims arrived at the camp at Chittagong, this port was closed, with the approval of the Government of India, in the year 1904, vide Home Department letter No. 514, dated the 7th April 1904. Since that time no representation against the closure of the camp or for the re-opening of either the port of Calcutta or the port of Chittagong has been made.

3. While His Excellency the Governor in Council would not object to Calcutta and Chittagong being re-opened to pilgrim traffic, past experience has shown that Chittagong cannot compete with Bombay in the matter of the pilgrim traffic, while it is unlikely that such traffic as Calcutta had in former times will be likely to return since Bombay is in every way more convenient. When the camp was first opened at Chittagong considerable difficulty was experienced in securing steamers to convey the pilgrims, and as soon as the internal restrictions were removed, the pilgrims abandoned Chittagong and proceeded by Bombay. Even were this port re-opened, pilgrims could never be certain of a ship at Chittagong and the ships could never be certain of securing a full cargo of pilgrims. Although no statistics are available to show the extent of pilgrim traffic that existed before the port of Calcutta was closed, it is understood that it was very small, and it is extremely doubtful whether the trade will ever return to Calcutta now that it has been steadily diverted to the Bombay port where the facilities are so much greater. The opening of the port of Calcutta would entail considerable expenditure on sanitary and medical measures which would be necessary to make the medical examination effective, and His Excellency the Governor in Council is of opinion that the results would not justify such an expenditure. And further the measures which would be necessary to safeguard the health of the city and the port of Calcutta would impose restrictions which would discourage pilgrims from embarking at this port. It is unlikely that the opening of either the port of Calcutta or Chittagong will have the slightest effect on reducing the pressure in Bombay or on the coast of the pilgrim passage and His Excellency the Governor in Council is, therefore, unable to support the proposal.

No. 64, dated the 18th January 1913.

From—THE HON'BLE MR. L. C. PORTER, C.I.E., I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bombay, General Department.

WITH reference to your letter No. 1991, dated the 23rd March 1912, on the subject of a proposal made by the Hon'ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola to throw open the ports of Madras, Calcutta and Chittagong for the embarkation of pilgrims to the Hedjaz, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of Bombay, copies of letters* from the Governments of Madras and Bengal. The Government of India agree in the opinion expressed therein that the opening of the ports of Madras, Calcutta and Chittagong is likely to have little or no effect on the congestion of pilgrim traffic in Bombay, and that the results would not justify the large expenditure involved in the proposal. They trust that the opening of the port of Karachi to such traffic, which has been recently sanctioned by them, will afford appreciable relief to the port of Bombay.

2. Letter from the Government of Bengal, No. 92-Sany., dated the 9th January 1913.

From—THE HON'BLE MR. L. C. PORTER, C.I.E., I.C.S., Secy. to the Govt. of India, Dept. of Education,

To—The Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Municipal Dept.

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with your telegram No. 898-Sany., dated the 18th March 1913, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of Bengal, an extract from the proceedings of the Imperial Legislative Council of the 20th March 1913 containing the debate on a resolution moved by the Hon'ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola and accepted in an amended form by the Government of India.

2. I am to enquire whether, in view of the opinions expressed in the Imperial Council in the course of this debate, the Government of Bengal are prepared to modify the views communicated in your letter No. 92-Sany., dated the 9th January 1913.

No. 78-T. San., dated Dacca, the 31st July 1913.

From—THE HON'BLE MR. JAMES DONALD, M.A., I.C.S., Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 729, dated the 2nd May 1913, on the subject of the opening of the ports of Calcutta and Chittagong for embarkation of pilgrims to the Hedjaz.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Governor in Council has consulted several leading Muhammadan gentlemen of this province on the question and they have expressed themselves as entirely in agreement with the views set forth in my letter No. 92-San., dated the 9th January 1913. In their opinion the assumption which was made by the Hon'ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola in the course of the debate in the Imperial Council that a large number of pilgrims would annually go through the ports of Calcutta and Chittagong if these ports were open to pilgrim traffic would have no justification in actual experience, and they consider that the opening of these ports would afford no appreciable relief to the traffic to Bombay. In view of these facts I am to say that the Governor in Council adheres to the views communicated in my letter referred to.

Power to remove minor girls from undesirable guardianship.

(a) frequents the company of any common prostitute; or

(b) is lodging or residing in a house, or other place used as a human dwelling, or the part of a house or such place, used by any prostitute for purposes of prostitution, or is otherwise living in circumstances calculated to cause, encourage or favour the seduction or prostitution of the child, may, subject to the restrictions provided in the following sub-sections, make an order removing the child from the custody of the person with whom she is living and committing her to other and suitable custody, until she attains the age of majority :

"Provided that a child shall not be treated as coming within the scope of clause (a), if the only common prostitute whose company the child frequents is the mother of the child, and that the mother exercises proper guardianship and due care to protect the child from physical and moral contamination.

"(2) Before making an order under sub-section (1) the Magistrate may make such inquiry as he thinks fit, and shall issue a notice to the person with whom the child is living and shall hear and consider any evidence which he may adduce.

"(3) No order under sub-section (1) shall be made—

(a) if an order of a competent Civil Court appointing a guardian of the person of the minor is in force; or

"552C. (1) Any person to whose custody a female child has been committed by an order under section 552A shall, whilst the order is in force, be deemed to be the lawful guardian of the person of such child; and the child shall continue in the custody of such person, notwithstanding that she is claimed by her parent or any other person.

"(3) Save as herein expressly provided, no Court shall entertain any suit or other legal proceeding to enforce any right or power which would interfere with the control of the custodian over the child which is provided for by sub-section (1)."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

On the 18th September, 1912, Mr Dadabhoy, who was then a Member of the Imperial Legislative Council, introduced in it a Bill for the protection of women and girls and other purposes. That Bill was circulated for the opinion of Local Governments, whose reports were duly received, and in the light of them it is considered that, while Mr. Dadabhoy's measure, in the form in which it was introduced, is not altogether suitable, nevertheless the degree of acceptance which has been accorded to the principle underlying it, namely, the desirability of strengthening the law, safeguarding minor girls and of affording some facilities for the rescue of children from undesirable surroundings, justifies a cautious advance in this direction, which it is the object of the present Bill to effect. Apart from a minor amendment to section 552 of the Criminal Procedure Code, the clauses of the Bill fall within two main categories : firstly, those which are designed to remedy defects which have been shown to exist in the working of sections 372 and 373 of the Indian Penal Code; and secondly, those which prescribe an optional procedure by which minor girls may be removed from improper guardianship under the orders of a magistrate. The purport of the principal clauses is noted below.

Clause 2.—The amendment is designed to make it clear that an offence is committed under section 372 or 373 of the Indian Penal Code, when the minor is either disposed of or procured for the purpose of being sexually known either before or after attainment of the age of sixteen, and whether she is made over to a life of immorality or merely subjected to an isolated act of carnal intercourse. In either case, the child is equally deserving of protection.

Clause 3.—The first explanation declares the presumption that if a minor girl is disposed of to a common prostitute, the person so disposing of her shall have done so with the improper intent mentioned in section 372 of the Indian Penal Code.

The second explanation defines the offence of illicit sexual intercourse as sexual intercourse which is not sanctioned by law or custom It has been pointed out by several Local Governments that irregular sexual relationships prevail in certain localities which, while falling short of legal marriage, are recognized as practically equivalent to it, and do not demand the special protection of any girl affected by them; these it is proposed to exempt from the operation of the Bill.

Clause 4.—The amendment is consequential to the first explanation added by clause 3.

Clause 5.—The age limit in section 552 of the Criminal Procedure Code, under which a magistrate may compel the restoration of abducted females, is fourteen. It is thought that an additional measure of protection can safely be afforded by the enhancement of this age to sixteen.

Clause 6.—The amendments to sections 372 and 373 of the Indian Penal Code mentioned above provide for the punishment of those who dispose of or procure children with improper intent; the provisions of clause 6 et sequitur are supplementary, in that they deal with the rescue of the children themselves from surroundings in which they are likely to be exposed to moral risk. The clause empowers a presidency or district magistrate, either on private complaint or of his own knowledge or suspicion, after inquiry, to direct the removal of minor girls until the age of majority from the custody of undesirable guardians (including a mother, unless the latter can show that she has taken steps to protect her daughter from physical and moral contamination), if prostitution or seduction is likely to result, provided that the magistrate is satisfied that proper arrangements can be made for the care of the child, preferably with a person of the same religion. No such order may be made, however, if an order of a competent civil Court appointing a guardian of the person of the minor is in force. Power is further taken to cancel or vary an order or to attach conditions to the custody of the child, and discretion is given to the magistrate to direct the payment of reasonable maintenance of the child by the person liable for its support. Lastly, protection is given to those to whose custody children may be made over in these circumstances though the subsequent order of a competent civil Court appointing a guardian shall discharge the order of the magistrate making the child over to any other custody.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In accordance with the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Decentralization a general Delegation Bill, providing with certain safeguards for the delegation by notification to a lower authority of powers and duties vested by law in a higher authority, was introduced in the Imperial Legislative Council on the 22nd September, 1911. It was eventually decided, however, to abandon that Bill, and to substitute for it a Decentralization Bill accompanied by schedules indicating precisely the delegations of powers which it is proposed to effect in particular Acts. The draft Bill is confined to Acts of the Imperial Legislature, and provincial Acts will be left to be dealt with in local Decentralization Bills. The Schedule to the Bill shows the nature of the amendments contemplated in Acts of the Imperial Legislature of general or local application.

2. So far as enactments dealing with revenue and cognate matters are concerned, it is proposed to legislate in two directions The first is in the substitution of the control of the Governor General in Council for his sanction in connection with the framing of rules, or in the elimination of control, where such control is considered unnecessary. The sections and Acts affected are:—

The Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, 1873 (VIII of 1873), Section 75; The Chota Nagpur Incumbered Estates Act, 1876 (VI of 1876), Section 19; The Destruction of Records Act, 1879 (III of 1879), Section 5; The Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), Section 10; The Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884), Section 4; The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 (XVI of 1887), Sections 61(3), 85(I) and 106; The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887), Section 155; The Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), Section 55; The Ajmere Irrigation Regulation, 1887 (VIII of 1887), Section 4; The Coorg Land and Revenue Regulation, 1899 (I of 1899), Section 60.

The second direction in which legislation is contemplated is in the delegation to a lower agency of certain powers which are at present vested in the Government of India, in a Local Government or in a specified subordinate authority. The sections and Acts affected are:—

The Bengal Land-revenue Sales Act, 1859 (XI of 1859), Sections 19, 26, 32 and 49; The Waste-lands (Claims) Act, 1863 (XXIII of 1863), Sections 4, 5, 6, 10, 22 and 23; The Burma Boundaries Act, 1880 (V of 1880), Sections 28 and 32; The Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), new Section 11; The Agriculturists' Loans Act (XII of 1884), Section 4; The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887), Sections 7(1) and 118(2); The Revenue Recovery Act, 1890 (I of 1890), Section 3(2).

3. The reasons for the more important delegations of powers proposed in other Acts are indicated below:—

The Calcutta Pilots Act, 1859, Section 17.—The Bengal Pilot Service is under the immediate control of the Local Government, and, apart from cases in which the general right of appeal to the Government of India is involved, the latter exercise no control, in practice, over the Service in matters affecting discipline. It is therefore proposed to dispense with the provision requiring the previous sanction of the Government of India to the preparation of a schedule of punishments for offences committed by members of the Service.

The Police Act, 1861, the Schedule, Part I; Section 2 and the Madras District Police Act, 1859, Sections 5 and 8.—These delegations will obviate the necessity for a reference to the Government of India except when financial rules require it.

The Madras Civil Courts Act, 1873, Sections 3 and 4.—These delegations will enable the Local Government, within the limits of their financial powers, to add to the number of district courts, subordinate judges and munsifs, without reference to the Government of India. Section 28.—The High Court is in the best position to say whether the powers in question can safely be granted or not.

The Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, 1873.—It is no longer considered necessary that a Local Government should, as required by section 65 of the Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, obtain the sanction of the Governor General in Council before requisitioning labour for annual silt clearances from canals.

The Sea Customs Act, 1878.—The delegations which it is proposed to make are intended to increase the powers at present exercised by the Chief Customs-authorities and the Chief Customs Officers at the various ports. They will considerably shorten Customs procedure and will tend to the more expeditious despatch of public business at the Customs-houses. Most of the delegations proposed were suggested by the maritime Local Governments and have been accepted after careful consideration by the Government of India.

The Cotton Duties Act, 1896.—The above remarks apply also to the delegations which it is proposed to make under this Act.

The Oudh Civil Courts Act, 1879, Section 7.—This delegation will enable the United Provinces Government to appoint additional Judges within the limits of its financial powers, without reference to the Government of India. Sections 17 and 24.—The Judicial Commissioner is in the best position to say whether the pecuniary jurisdiction of a munsif or a subordinate judge should be raised.

The Indian Income-tax Act, 1886.—The amendment to the Income Tax Act now proposed gives Local Governments the option of delegating certain powers now exercised solely by them to the Board of Revenue or the Financial Commissioner, as the case may be.

The points covered relate chiefly to minor matters of procedure in relation to publication and notice, and to recovery of arrears. It is proposed also to allow delegation to the Chief Revenue Authority of power to sanction prosecutions on behalf of the Local Government. In a province which may possess neither a Board of Revenue nor a Financial Commissioner, the delegations contemplated may be to such authority as the Local Government declares to be the Chief Revenue Authority for the province.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, Sections 5 (1) and 8 (1).—These delegations will enable Local Governments to establish Courts of Small Causes and to appoint additional Judges to such courts within the limits of their financial powers, without reference to the Government of India.

The Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act, 1887, Sections 4 and 5.—Local Governments will be able to alter the number of subordinate judges and munsifs within the limits of their financial powers, without reference to the Government of India. Sections 19, 25 and 34 (1).—A permissive power of delegation to the High Court is provided, so as to give the Local Governments a free hand in the matter.

The Inland Bonded Warehouses Act, 1896.—It is proposed to dispense with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council to the rules made by Local Governments under section 7 of this Act. The provisions of sections 5 to 7 of the Act have up to the present been extended to the Presidency of Bengal and the province of Bihar and Orissa only; and the rules under section 7 relate purely to matters of detail with which the Local Governments concerned are fully competent to deal on their own authority.

The Indian Stamp Act, 1899.—The first of the proposed amendments to the Indian Stamp Act empowers the Collector to refund the penalty paid under section 38 (1) of his own motion without reference to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority. The second delegates to Local Governments the powers, at present possessed only by the Governor General in Council, to make rules governing the powers of the Collector to make allowance for spoiled stamps. The third amendment empowers the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to delegate to Collectors the power, conferred on the former by section 51, of making allowance in the case of printed forms no longer required by corporations. The fourth amendment is on lines similar to those followed in the proposed amendment of the Indian Income Tax Act, and authorizes, as regards certain incidental matters of administrative procedure, the delegation of powers now exercised by Local Governments to the Chief Revenue Authority, and of powers at present exercised solely by the latter to a suitable subordinate authority.

The Lower Burma Courts Act, 1900, Section 23.—This will give the Local Government powers which other Local Governments exercise without the intervention of the Governor General in Council.

The Indian Mines Act, 1901, Section 20 (1).—It is proposed to dispense with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council to the issue of rules by Local Governments, but to retain a general control under which the Governor General in Council can require Local Governments to submit, for his approval, rules regarding minerals of special importance. Section 29.—The power of exempting mines from the operation of the Act may be suitably exercised by Local Governments who are in a better position to judge of the merits of application for exemption.

The Cantonments (House-accommodation) Act, 1902.—As at present drafted section 10 (1) of the Cantonments (House Accommodation) Act, II of 1902, provides that the power to allow the occupation of houses in any cantonment or part of a cantonment in which the Act has been declared to be operative, for the purposes of a hospital, bank, hotel, shop or school, or by a railway administration, shall be exercised by the Officer Commanding the Division, after the concurrence of the Local Government has been obtained. It is considered desirable that the concurrence of the Divisional Commissioner should be substituted for that of the Local Government.

The Indian Registration Act, 1908, Sections 6, 12, 13 (1) and 13 (3).—The proposed delegations to the Inspector General of Registration under sections 6 and 13 (3) will save time and unnecessary correspondence with the Local Government. Consequential amendments are proposed in sections 12 and 13 (1). Sections 14 and 75.—It is considered sufficient for the Governor General in Council to retain merely a power of control in these matters, which are mainly of local interest.

The Indian Emigration Act, 1908, Sections 11 and 102.—It is considered that the powers exercised by the Government of India to authorize the payment of special fees to Emigration Agents and to determine probable length of voyages for the purposes of the Act, should be delegated to Local Governments. It is proposed to amend sections 50-53 to enable the Protector of Emigrants to grant licenses to masters of vessels to carry emigrants. It appears unnecessary to require the orders of the Local Government for the issue of such licenses.

The Upper Burma Ruby Regulation, 1887, Sections 4 and 5(2) and (3).—As the Regulation is of local application only, it is considered that the rule-making powers conferred by section 4 on the Local Government should be exercised by it without a previous reference to the Government of India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The development of the use of motor vehicles as the result of the increasing number of persons who seek to travel by this means both within and outside the limits of individual provinces, has emphasised the desirability of re-examining the Indian legislation on the subject. At present the law is contained in six separate provincial Acts,* which, though exhibiting no important differences of principle, are not identical in form. In the interests of simplicity, and in order that owners of motor cars may be saved the inconvenience of reference to different provincial Acts, it is thought that the time has now come when the law on the subject may usefully be consolidated.

* Madras Act I of 1907.
Bombay Act II of 1904.
Bengal Act III of 1903.
The United Provinces Act II of 1911.
The Punjab Act II of 1907.
Burma Act II of 1906.

2. The present Bill has accordingly been drafted with the intention of introducing uniform provisions on important matters of principle and embodying the best local features in the different existing Acts, while, so far as possible, avoiding any substantial departure from the several provincial Acts which it will replace. Subsidiary matters will still be governed by local rules suitable to the varying conditions of different provinces, but under the procedure of one general Act, it is probable that such regulations will be framed on more uniform lines than is at present the case. In particular, power is conferred to grant licenses valid in more than one province, provided they are issued in accordance with such conditions and restrictions as the Governor General in Council may prescribe. The object of the Bill, in short, is to promote the convenience of motorists and to give increased facilities for motor travel. The Motor Vehicles International Circulation Act, 1912 (XII of 1912), was the first step in this direction, and its provisions are re-enacted in the present Bill.

3. The following are the more noticeable provisions of the Bill :—

Clause 1.—As regards the extent of the Act, Part III, which deals with licensing and control, has been extended in the first instance only to those provinces in which or in parts of which such provisions already exist, but it will be open to other Local Governments to notify its extension within their jurisdiction, while under clause 14 they can similarly exclude specified areas from its operation.

Clause 3.—Prohibits the driving of motor vehicles by persons under 16 years of age; the English law prescribes an age-limit of 17 years in the case of drivers of ordinary motors, with a lower limit of 14 in the case of motor cycles. It is considered that the complication of two limits may usefully be avoided by the adoption of a general minimum which the circumstances of this country would appear to justify.

Clauses 4 and 6.—These clauses are intended to afford the protection to the public everywhere against reckless and inconsiderate driving to which it would appear to be entitled.

Clause 7.—Provides for a licensing system in those provinces to which this Part of the Act applies, although it will be observed that a person receiving instructions in driving, subject to any rules made in this behalf, is exempt from this requirement.

Clause 10.—Enables licenses to be granted with validity beyond the province in which they are granted, while reserving power to the Governor General in Council to regulate the grant of such licenses.

Clause 11.—Confers a rule-making power upon Local Governments on the different points which the examination of the various provincial Acts indicates as actually arising in practice.

Clauses 15 and 16.—Follow the Motor Vehicles International Circulation Act, 1912.

Clause 17.—Confers a power of arrest without warrant which is a necessary condition of the efficient regulation of traffic of this description.

Clause 18.—Limits the trial of offences under the Act to Courts not inferior to those of a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the second class.

Clause 19.—Empowers the Local Government to cancel or suspend any license, or to declare any person disqualified for obtaining a license, thus protecting the public against incompetent or unsuitable drivers. A Court, trying the holder of a license for any offence under the Act, may also suspend the license pending the termination of the proceedings.

Clause 20.—Repeals the Motor Vehicles International Circulation Act, 1912, and the different existing provincial Acts on the subject of motor vehicles.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Preliminary Forecast of the Bhadoi Crops of Bengal, 1913-14.

(NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1911-12 the area under autumn rice in Bengal represents some 5·6 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—In February and March the rainfall was generally above the average throughout the province but the deficiency of rain in April interfered with the sowings to some extent. In May the weather was favourable, and the rainfall, though moderately in excess of the normal, was beneficial to the growth of the various bhadoi crops. In June the rainfall was very much in excess and the damage to the crops was in consequence considerable. In July the conditions improved a little; but owing to the heavy floods in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions and even in some Eastern Bengal districts the crops suffered a considerable amount of damage. Injury by insect-pests is also reported from parts of Dacca and Khulna.

Area sown.—The total area sown this year with the different bhadoi crops is reported to be 5,939,500 acres against 6,226.300 acres of last year. Of this area 4,846,200 acres are reported to be under autumn (aus) rice this year against 5,008,000 acres of last year. The decrease is due to unfavourable weather conditions at the time of sowing and to the extension of jute cultivation.

Outturn.—From the appendix attached to the report it will be seen that in almost every district the outturn is reported to have fallen much below the normal. The low outturn is attributed chiefly to heavy rain and floods. According to the estimates of the District Officers the outturn of the different bhadoi crops works out to 71 per cent. against 87 per cent. last year and that of autumn rice to 72 per cent. against 87 per cent. last year.

Nadia ...	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	491,100	506,000	448,700	100	50	Beginning of May. Late.	The decrease in area sown is due to want of rain at the proper sowing season and excessive rain at the time when sowing began; the low lands getting water-logged could not be sown. The crop was damaged to a appreciable extent, and hence the decrease in the estimated outturn.

Murshidabad.	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	229,700	183,200	179,600	92	75	April and May. Normal.	The decrease in area under paddy is due to non-cultivation of certain disputed lands in Hijoli in the Kandi subdivision. The decrease in area under bhadoi non-food-crops etc., is due to cultivation of other crops thereon and also to exclusion of mulberry from this head. The crops have been damaged to the extent of about 4 annas by excessive rain and flood, and consequently the outturn is expected to to be much below the normal.

Jessore ...	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	407,300	340,700	289,000	92	50	April. Normal	The decrease in area under bhadoi paddy is due to cultivation of jute in tracts where aus rice was previously grown. The weather was favourable at the beginning, but heavy rain in June damaged the different crops to the extent of 50 per cent.
	Other bhadoi cereals ...	13,200	9,700	10,600	92	50

Khulna ...	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	45,800	25,700	14,100	80	62	16th April. Normal.	The decrease in area under different crops is due to want of rain at the sowing time and also to subsequent heavy rain, which retarded the growth of the crops. Some damage was also done to the crops by insect-pests in Bagerhat sub-division. Hence the outturn has fallen below the normal.
	Other bhadoi cereals ...	200	100	100	100	62	17th May. Normal.

	Bhadoi non-food-crops other than fodder and fibres.	300	300	200	100	77	25th May.
	Total ...	73,300	51,900	29,500	90	69
Burdwan ...	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	140,000	125,500	120,100	108	75	End of April to beginning of June.	The decrease in area under bhadoi paddy is due to excessive rainfall at the sowing time. The excessive rains affected the growth of all bhadoi crops throughout the district, and the floods also affected their growth in certain tracts. Nearly 8 annas crop in Sadar and Kalna and about 5 annas in Asansol and to some extent in Katwa has been damaged by Damodar and Ajay floods. This accounts for the falling off of the outturn.
	Indian-corn (maize) ...	3,000	3,000	3,000	100	100	June.
	Other bhadoi cereals ...	6,700	1,900	1,800	92	92	May to July.
	Other bhadoi pulses ...
	Bhadoi orchard and garden produce.	2,500	2,500	2,400	92	75
	Other bhadoi food-crops (i.e., vegetables).	2,200	2,100	2,100	100	83
	Bhadoi non-food-crops other than fodder and fibres.	10,000	8,000	8,000	100	83
	Total ...	164,400	143,000	137,400	108	75
Birbhum ...	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	144,100	102,400	144,100	75	100	June. Normal	The increase in area under autumn rice is due to good rainfall. The weather conditions were favourable throughout and a normal outturn of different crops is expected.
	Indian-corn (maize) ...	1,900	1,200	1,900	75	100
	Other bhadoi cereals ...	1,400	1,100	1,400	75	100
	Bhadoi orchard and garden produce.	10,000	10,000	10,000	75	100
	Bhadoi non-food-crops other than fodder and fibres.	2,800	1,700	2,800	75	100
	Total ...	160,200	116,400	160,200	75	100
Bankura ...	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	21,900	12,900	12,900	75	83	6th June ...	The decrease in area sown in respect of certain crops was due to excessive rainfall during the year. The general condition of the crop was not good on account of unfavourable weather and the flood of Damodar damaged the crops in parts of thanas Sonamukhi, Indas, Meje and Barjora. Hence the decrease in the outturn.
	Bajra	800	600	800	67	83	26th June.

Dinajpur	Bhadoi paddy (autumn rice).	130,700	129,000	133,900	57	62	May. Late.	Increase in area under bhadoi paddy is due to placing of some jute fields under the cultivation of that crop. The weather was fair at the sowing time, but proper weeding could not be made owing to excessive rainfall in June. The crops were damaged to some extent for the same reason and the outturn is expected to fall below the normal.

The decrease in area under bhadoi paddy and Indian-corn is due to insufficient rain at the time of sowing. About 2 to 4 annas of each of the crops have been damaged by excessive rain in July and August, which accounts for the decrease in outturn.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

First forecast of winter rice crop of Bengal, 1913-14.

(NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1911-12 the area under winter rice in Bengal represents some 19·9 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—The season was generally favourable for broadcast paddy, but very unfavourable for transplanted paddy. In April the rainfall was generally defective throughout the Province. In May the fall was above the normal which hindered to some extent the ploughing operation and the preparation of seedbeds. In June the rainfall was very much in excess of the normal and the transplanting operations were delayed in consequence. The rainfall in July and August was approximately normal, but an unusually heavy flood considerably damaged the crop, especially on low lands in most of the districts of Western Bengal, also in some Eastern Bengal districts. Large areas under winter rice in parts of the districts of Burdwan, Howrah, Hooghly and Midnapore were completely washed away and had to be replanted afterwards. Injury by insect-pests has been reported from parts of Khulna, Bakarganj, Mymensingh, Faridpur and Chittagong Hill Tracts. The season on the whole was unfavourable for the crop in West Bengal, but fair in East Bengal.

Acreage.—According to the figures furnished by the District Officers the area sown this year is 14,329,400 acres, against 15,313,900 acres last year, or a decrease of 984,500 acres. The decrease is due to unfavourable weather at the time of sowing. The normal area under the crop is returned as 16,075,300 acres.

Outturn.—From the summary of the district returns appended, it will be seen that Malda only reports a bumper crop, viz., 125 per cent. Twelve districts report a crop between 90 and 100 per cent., five districts between 80 to 88 per cent. and the remaining districts between 50 to 70 per cent. These low outturns are chiefly attributed to excessive rain and floods. According to the estimates of the District Officers the provincial outturn works out to 83 per cent. of the normal against 98 per cent. last year.

CALCUTTA,
The 26th September 1913.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

APPENDIX I.

First Forecast of the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1913-14.

District.	Estimated normal area under winter rice.	Estimated area under winter rice.		Estimated outturn as a percentage of the normal yield per unit of area.		Date by which the sowing of broadcasted winter rice commenced this year, and whether that date was early, normal or late.	Date by which the transplanting of winter rice commenced this year and whether that date was early, normal or late.	REMARKS BY DISTRICT OFFICERS.
		Last year.	This year.	Last year.	This year.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.
24-Parganas ...	899,700	827,400	777,700	88	67	May. Normal ...	July. Late ...	The decrease in area this year is due to heavy rainfall during the time of sowing. Heavy and excessive rainfall has caused much damage to the crop and the outturn is expected to be below the normal in every part of the district.
Nadia ...	136,800	135,800	124,400	88	67	April. Normal...	Middle of June. Late.	The decrease in the area sown is due to unfavourable weather conditions. Excessive rainfall has considerably damaged the crop. The Subdivisional Officer, Chuadanga, estimates that about three-fourths of the crop has been damaged in his subdivision by the excessive rainfall and that of Ranaghat reports that the outturn will be about 50 per cent.
Murshidabad ...	345,600	337,900	288,600	83	83	May. Normal	End of June and beginning of July. Normal.	The decrease in area as compared with last year is due to floods in Kandi subdivision and to excessive rain at the time of sowing in other subdivisions. The excessive rainfall retarded the growth of the crop. About 3 to 4 annas of the crop has been damaged by floods. Hence the outturn is expected to be below the normal.
Jessore	568,100	466,300	406,100	117	58	April. Normal	July. Normal.	The decrease is due to heavy rainfall. A low outturn is expected on account of the damage done by rain.
Khulna ...	656,700	759,500	707,800	123	92	April to May. Late in Sadar.	July to August. Late in Sadar Bagerhat.	The decrease in area is due to want of rain in April and May and excessive rain in June and July. The weather was unfavourable at the time of sowing, but it was favourable at the time of transplantation. Much damage has been done by excessive rain and insect-pests. Hence the outturn is likely to fall below the normal.
Burdwan ...	874,800	706,000	746,000	99	93	Middle of June to second week of July. Early in Sadar and Katwa subdivisions; normal in Asansol and Kalna.	End of June to end of August. Early in Sadar and Katwa and normal in Kalna and Asansol subdivisions.	The increase in area is due to favourable rainfall at the time of sowing. But excessive rainfall afterwards retarded the growth of the crop except at Sadar subdivision and on high lands. Extent of damage done by floods in August last is estimated in Sadar subdivision to be 8 annas, in Kalna subdivision 4 annas. In Katwa subdivision the damage is considerable. The extent of damage in Asansol subdivision is not known. For the above reasons the outturn is expected to fall below the normal.
Birbhum ...	604,600	498,800	586,100	75	100	No broadcast sowing in this district.	June. Early.	The increase in area this year is due to good rainfall. The weather was favourable to the growth of the crop. A normal outturn is expected.
Bankura ...	510,600	476,400	480,000	83	92	End of May. Normal.	Middle of July. Normal.	The increase in area this year is due to favourable weather conditions at the time of sowing. The weather continued to be favourable up till now, but great damage was done to the crop by the flood of Damodar in Dwarka Sonamukhi, Indas, Mejea and Barjora. The outturn is expected to be below the normal.

Midnapore ...	1,406,000	1,618,400	1,144,500	100	50	Middle of May, but in the Contai subdivision in June. Normal.	Beginning of June. Normal.	The decrease in the area cultivated this year is due to excessive rainfall and floods. The decrease is very large in Contai subdivision. Excessive rainfall affected the growth of the crop in low lands, but did much good to the crops on high lands. Considerable damage has been caused by floods in Contai subdivision, but in Tamluk and Ghatal the crop has been partially damaged. Hence a low outturn is expected.
Hooghly ...	276,700	251,400	225,500	96	67	June. Normal	July. Normal...	The decrease in area this year is due to heavy rainfall and flood. The weather was unfavourable at the time of sowing, but it is somewhat favourable now. Seedlings were considerably damaged by excessive rain and flood. The lands which were washed away had to be replanted. The outturn is expected to fall below the normal.
Howrah ...	125,200	106,600	94,200	83	58	May. Normal...	July	The decrease in area this year is due to excessive rain. The weather was favourable at the time of sowing broad-casted winter rice, but unfavourable in respect of transplanted paddy-plants. The excessive rain and unusually heavy flood of the river Damodar submerged the paddy-fields in Amta, Sibpur, Bagnan, Uluberia, Jagatballavpur, Domjur and Liluah. About five annas of the crop on the average have been lost by the flood. The outturn will fall below the normal.
Rajshahi ...	697,000	502,400	479,500	75	68	Beginning of April. Normal.	Beginning of July. Normal.	The decrease in area as compared with that of last year is due to heavy rain which submerged and destroyed the plants in Tanas Barsiraru. The outturn is expected to fall below the normal.
Dinajpur ...	1,120,300	966,000	1,016,400	70	90	Nil	Middle of July. Normal.	Increase in area this year is due partly to timely rainfall and partly to placing some jute fields under winter-rice cultivation. The weather conditions have been favourable and no damage has hitherto been done to the crop.
Jalpaiguri ...	551,300	527,400	480,400	90	87	Beginning of April to middle of May. Normal.	End of June to middle of July. Normal except Baikuntapur where it commenced by the last week of July and is still going on. Late.	The cause of decrease in area is the want of sufficient rain at the time of sowing. The weather was also unfavourable at the time of transplantation. The outturn is expected to be less than normal for want of sufficient rain.
Darjeeling ...	65,200	37,100	36,800	92	92	.....	July. Late ...	The decrease in area is due to unfavourable weather at the time of sowing. The character of the weather is now fair. The outturn is not expected to be good.
Rangpur ...	822,300	746,600	699,000	110	100	1st part of May. Normal.	Middle of June. Normal.	There has been a decrease in area in Sadar subdivision only for which no reason has been stated. The weather conditions have been favourable and a normal outturn is expected.
Bogra ...	303,000	303,000	303,000	75	90	Middle of April. Normal.	Middle of July. Normal.	The weather was favourable at the time of sowing, but it was not so afterwards on account of heavy rain and wind. In eastern part of the district the broadcasted winter rice was appreciably damaged by early flood, and also by the flood level suddenly falling off to an abnormal extent. For above reasons the outturn will fall below the normal.

Pabna ...	566,000	470,000	470,000	110	100	End of March. Normal.	End of July. Normal	The weather was favourable at the time of sowing. Rainfall was insufficient for some time. The recent rainfall has very much improved the prospects. There has been no damage from natural causes. The outturn is expected to be normal.
Malda ...	300,000	309 000	309,000	100	125	April. Early ...	June. Early ...	A good outturn is expected owing to early cultivation and favourable weather since transplantation. The above remark will apply to transplanted and broadcasted winter rice as well.
Dacca ...	633,100	666,600	567,300	93	87	April except Narayanganj, where it began in March. Early.	August. Normal.	The decrease is due to increase in area under jute. The excessive rain interfered with the growth of the crop. An unusually low flood has also proved injurious to the crop. The outturn will therefore fall below the normal.
Mymensingh ...	1,126,700	933,800	947,200	103	81	First week of April. Normal.	Middle of July. Normal.	The cause of decrease in area is want of rain in the Netrokona subdivision at the time of sowing and floods in some places of Kishoreganj subdivision by the middle of July. Great damage has been done to the crop owing to floods and insect-pests.
Faridpur ...	561,000	427,600	420,500	83	74	March and April. Normal.	June and July. Normal.	The weather was unusually dry at the time of sowing, but afterwards very heavy and excessive rain in June caused considerable damage to the crop. The floods also damaged the crop in Gopalganj subdivision. The rice Aloya also attacked a large area in the southern part of the district which also affected the outturn considerably.
Bakarganj ...	1,300,000	1,339,300	1,303,000	100	80	Middle of June. Normal.	Beginning of July. Normal.	Last year's estimate of area was a little too high. A reduction of area was also caused by floods. The rainfall was excessive at the time of sowing. A certain amount of damage has been done by floods and insect-pests. Hence the outturn is likely to fall below normal.
Chittagong ...	418,600	419,800	422,000	110	100	Beginning of June. Normal.	July. Early ...	The increase in area this year is due to timely and sufficient rainfall. The weather has been on the whole favourable and the outturn is estimated at 100 per cent.
Tippera ...	724,800	735,000	720,000	100	70	Middle of March. Normal.	Middle of August. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to floods. The weather was fair at the time of sowing, but floods afterwards damaged the broadcasted crop to the extent of 40 per cent. Hence the outturn is expected to fall below the normal.
Noakhali ...	566,900	544,800	538,400	125	95	First part of April. Normal.	July. Normal ...	Heavy rain in the beginning did some damage to the seedlings. One-fourth of the crop has been damaged by the flood in the Parasuram and Chagalnaya thanas in Feni subdivision. The weather is good at present and the outturn on the whole is expected to be approximately normal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Second Forecast of the Cotton Crops of Bengal, 1913-14.

(NOTE.—On the average of the five years ending 1911-12, the area under cotton crops in Bengal represents some 0·2 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.)

Explanatory.—This report deals with the progress of sowings and with the condition of the standing crops since the publication of the first report in August last.

Character of the season.—Since the publication of the first forecast in August last the weather conditions are not reported to have been favourable owing to excessive rainfall having injuriously affected the growth of the crop in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and in Hill Tippera, where the early variety is grown on a large scale. The areas under cotton (both early and late) in the districts of Bankura and Midnapore are limited and the sowings of the late variety have not as yet commenced in Bankura.

The condition of the early crop in these districts is reported to be fairly good except in the Contai subdivision of Midnapore, where the present condition of the crop is reported to be bad.

Area sown.—The total area sown with the early crop is reported to be 36,954 acres against 49,250 acres reported in the corresponding period last year. The area sown with late cotton up to date is reported to be 500 acres only against the same area last year.

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE EXCISE DEPARTMENT IN BENGAL DURING THE YEAR 1912-13.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 424T.—S.R.—The 30th September 1913.—The following extracts from the Report of the Commissioner of Excise and Salt, Bengal, on the administration of the Excise Department in Bengal during 1912-13 are published for general information, together with a Memorandum issued by Government on the Report.

J. DONALD,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Memorandum on the Report of the Commissioner of Excise on the administration of the Excise Department in Bengal during the year 1912-13.

THE total Excise revenue for the year was Rs. 1,37,59,157, an increase of Rs. 3,69,450 on the previous year. The increase is accounted for under the heads Country Spirit (Rs. 2,28,546), Opium (Rs. 1,15,016), Spirits manufactured in India paying duty at higher rates than ordinary country spirits (Rs. 27,048), Tari (Rs. 23,924) and Pachwai (Rs. 15,135). There was a decrease of Rs. 21,905 under the head Ganja.

2. There was no change in the system for the supply of country spirit during the year. The Presidency, Burdwan and Rajshahi Divisions continued to receive their supplies from the contract distilleries at Konnagar, Asansol and Marhourah, and the central distilleries at Russa, Dacca, Faridpur and Barisal were maintained during the year. The Chittagong Division was as in former years under the outstill system. With the close of the year the contract supply system was extended to the Dacca and Chittagong Divisions, and with this extension the outstill system has been abolished entirely throughout the Presidency. The central distilleries at Dacca, Faridpur and Barisal were closed, and the Russa distillery, which supplies Calcutta and its suburbs, is the only survivor in Bengal of the system which for so many years was the source of supply of country liquor to the greater portion of the Presidency. Considerable improvements have been effected in this distillery in recent years, and it is now in most respects of the nature of a contract distillery; the quality of the liquor supplied is little, if at all, inferior to that supplied from the more modern private distilleries which constitute the main source of supply.

3. The total increase in consumption in the distillery area was 54,750 gallons L.P. This increase was shared in by all districts, except Mymensingh. Several causes contributed to the increase. The year was one of unusual prosperity, particularly so in the trades which employ large numbers of the classes who are in the habit of consuming country spirit. Increased activity in the mills and factories and at the docks and good harvests, both of jute and paddy, improved the circumstances of the labouring classes and provided them with greater means for indulging in liquor. These conditions were particularly marked in Calcutta and in the industrial area within the Hooghly and Howrah districts. They account in part for, but do not wholly explain, the increase in consumption of 13,535 gallons in Calcutta, where, owing to the increase in the tariff rate and the restrictions placed on the sale and manufacture of foreign liquor, a further contributing cause to increased consumption is the displacement by country spirit of the cheap brands of foreign liquor. Midnapore and Bankura were affected by a failure of the mahua crop. With a good mahua crop the temptation to illicit distillation is greatly increased, and in good years illicit distillation prevails largely in these districts. But the consumer who ordinarily meets his wants by illicit practices is compelled by a failure of the crop to obtain his supplies from the licensed shops, and licit consumption is thereby increased. In the Rajshahi Division the increase is due to the more extensive use of contract liquor by the aboriginal consumers among whom its flavour and high price as compared with outstill liquor had rendered it unpopular when first introduced. The consumption in Darjeeling showed no great increase as compared with that of the previous year and still falls far short of the consumption which was estimated when the outstill system was abolished in 1905. A somewhat unsatisfactory feature of the year is the effect on consumption of the reduction in the license fees in the districts to which reference was made in the Excise Commissioner's Report for 1911-12. This reduction contributed in no small measure to the increased consumption in Hooghly, Midnapore, Dinajpur and the 24-Parganas, and its effect is strikingly illustrated in the results of the year. The increase in 1911-12 in the revenue from duty, which represents the increase in consumption, was Rs. 92,509, and the increase from license fees, which means the increase of cost to the consumer, was Rs. 2,38,544; in 1912-13, with the rate of duty unchanged, the corresponding figures were Rs 2,32,931 and Rs. 11,743. Although the revenue of the year shows an increase in the amount of license fees, this increase is accounted for by increased license fees for the current year on account of which advance payments were made in March last, and there was actually a decrease in the fees at which shops were settled during the past year. This fall in fees resulted in several districts in a reduction in the retail price with a consequent increase in consumption accentuated by the improved circumstances of consumers. The Local Government have not failed to take notice of the variations in the retail price caused by the fluctuation in the incidence of license fees, and they have taken measures to divert a considerable portion of the taxation from the fluctuating source of license fees to the fixed head of duty. A revision of the rates of duty on country spirit has been made, and with effect from the 1st April last the duty has been raised by 10 annas per L. P. gallon in most districts of the Presidency.

4. Despite this increase in duty the annual settlements for the year have resulted in an increase of Rs. 2,26,319 in license fees. This increase should result in a rise in the price to the consumer, and it is hoped that there will be a considerable decrease in consumption. The increase in the duty has already had a considerable effect on consumption, and statistics of the amounts issued from the distilleries and warehouses reveal a decrease of over 11,000 gallons in the consumption for the first quarter of the year as compared with the corresponding period of 1911-12. The effect is most marked in Calcutta, where the consumption of the quarter has fallen from 73,529 to 63,540 L. P. gallons, and in the Darjeeling district, where 7,584 gallons have been consumed as against 11,593 from April to June 1912.

5. There was an enormous decrease in the consumption of ganja in Calcutta, but this falling off was largely counterbalanced by increases in other districts, notably those of the Rajshahi Division, and the consumption for the Presidency as a whole was only 15 maunds short of that of the previous year. It is somewhat difficult to account for the abnormal decrease in Calcutta. Several causes have been at work, and there seems reason to fear that the spread of the cocaine habit has not been without effect upon the consumption of ganja. On the other hand a reduction in license fees and a reported increase in the ganja habit have swelled the consumption in other districts. The continued increase in the consumption of this drug in recent years has impressed the Local Government with the necessity for taking measures to check its growth, and with effect from the 1st April last the duty has been increased from Rs. 11 to Rs. 15 per seer. The increase was intentionally put at a high figure with the double object of increasing the retail price and of transferring taxation from the head of license fees to duty. This measure has already had its effect on consumption. The figures for the first quarter show a diminished consumption as compared with that in the previous year.

6. The consumption of opium in the Presidency increased by 29 maunds 8 seers, and the total revenue by Rs. 1,15,016. Consumption showed a decrease in only six districts, but while the revenue for the whole of the Presidency increased by 5 per cent., the total consumption rose by only 1·7 per cent. Measures have been taken to carry out the recommendations of the International Opium Commission of Shanghai. One hundred and twenty-six shops were abolished in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions, and the limit of retail sale has been reduced from 5 tolas to 3 tolas. The hours of sale have been restricted from sunrise to sunset in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions and in the district of Darjeeling. Further action with a view to discouraging the consumption of opium, on the principle that this drug should be treated as a luxury, is under the consideration of Government. This includes a revision of the prices at which opium is sold from the treasury, which aims at the fixation of a uniform standard and a rise in the retail price throughout the Presidency, legislation to check the habit of opium smoking, and the consolidation of the rules relating to morphia and its allied compounds, combined with the imposition of greater restrictions on the use of these drugs.

7. The imports of cocaine into the Presidency continue to be a source of great anxiety. Licit imports of this drug are under strict control; but notwithstanding the vigilance that is exercised by the Preventive officers of the Customs, Excise and Police Departments, smuggling is very prevalent, and large quantities of this drug pass in undetected. Seven hundred and forty-eight persons were convicted of the illicit possession and sale of cocaine, and in Calcutta alone 5,438 ounces were seized. There was a distinct improvement in the severity of sentences imposed in such cases, but the maximum punishment provided for such offences in the present Excise Act is undoubtedly light. A Bill to amend the Bengal Excise Act so as to make it applicable to the whole Presidency has been submitted to the Government of India, and provision has been made therein for an enhancement of the punishment which may be inflicted in all Excise cases, and in particular those relating to the possession and sale of cocaine.

8. An Excise Intelligence Bureau has been established in order to collate and disseminate information regarding smugglers and the smuggling of excisable articles. This Bureau works in close connection with similar Bureaux established in other Provinces, and it is hoped that their concerted action will result in a considerable check on the operations of those who smuggle cocaine into the Presidency, and of those who smuggle opium from, or through, this Presidency to Burma. It is also anticipated that sanction will shortly be accorded to the proposals for the reorganisation of the Excise Department, which have for their object the strengthening of the Excise establishment in each district of the Presidency.

No. 1765E., dated Calcutta, the 1st August 1913.

From—The HON'BLE MR. A. N. MOBERLY, I.C.S., Officiating Commissioner of Excise and Salt, Bengal,

To—The Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, Finl. Dept.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report on the administration of the Excise Department in the Presidency of Bengal for the year 1912-13.

* * * * * * *

Local Excise Committees.

6. Local committees, consisting of both official and non-official members, were formed in the following towns, which have a population of 20,000 or over, to consider and advise the Collector on the proposals regarding the licensing, number and situation of liquor shops (country spirit, foreign liquor, pachwai and tari) for the year 1913-14 :—

1. Burdwan.	7. Serampore.	13. Santipur.
2. Asansol.	8. Bhadreswar.	14. Berhampore.
3. Bankura.	9. Baidyabati.	15. Dacca.
4. Vishnupur.	10. Bhatpara.	16. Narainganj.
5. Midnapore.	11. Titagarh.	17. Chittagong.
6. Chinsura.	12. Krishnagar.	18. Darjeeling.

Local and municipal bodies were also consulted in the matter of sites of liquor shops in the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, whilst in the Dacca, Chittagong and Rajshahi Divisions they were consulted in respect of every kind of excise or opium shops. No new shop was opened without consulting local opinion and without an ascertained local demand. * * *

* * * * * * *

Under Government order No. 932S.R., dated the 30th November 1912, a local committee was appointed for Calcutta and its suburbs and for the towns of Howrah and Bally to advise as regards the number and location of liquor shops to be settled from the 1st April 1913. * * *

Actual receipts.

9. Deducting the advance collections (Rs. 11,23,103) for 1913-14 and adding the revenue (Rs. 8,40,526) for 1912-13, which was collected in advance in 1911-12, the actual receipts on account of 1912-13 were Rs. 1,34,76,580 against

Rs 1,34,12,319 (after similar adjustment) of the preceding year, showing an increase of Rs. 64,261, or ·4 per cent.

Revenue under different heads.

11. As in the previous year, the largest increase of revenue, Rs. 2,28,546, occurred under the head "country spirit." Opium comes next with an increase of Rs. 1,15,016, followed by "spirits manufactured in India paying duty at higher rates than ordinary country spirit" (Rs. 27,048), tari (Rs. 23,924) and pachwai (Rs. 15,135). The largest decrease occurred under ganja (Rs. 21,905). The increases under "country spirit" and "opium" are largely due to the credit in advance of part of the larger license fees obtained at the settlements for the current year; and but for this cause the decrease under ganja would have been much larger.

* * * * * * *

Demand and collection.

Taking the population of the Presidency of Bengal according to the census of 1911 to be 45,329,247, the incidence of excise revenue was 4 annas 10 pies against 4 annas 8 pies in the previous year.

* * * *

Result of settlements for the current year up to 31st May 1913.

13. * * The settlements for the current year showed an increase of Rs. 8,05,477 in license fees as compared with those for 1912-13. There was an increase of Rs. 2,26,319 under the head "country spirit" and of Rs. 5,79,158 under "other exciseable articles." Of the latter ganja license fees increased by Rs. 1,66,960 and opium license fees by Rs. 3,43,366.

More than half of the increase in license fees for the sale of country spirit occurred in Calcutta, where there had been a large increase in consumption during the triennial period of settlement, which expired on 31st March 1913, and where an increase in price is desirable. The next largest increase was in Darjeeling, where the maximum prices were increased at the same time as the rate of duty. The large increases in Rangpur and Bogra were due to the increased competition which resulted from the efforts of the local officers to break up monopolies. That in the 24-Parganas was due to the enhancement of upset prices in certain shops, in which the incidence of license fees on consumption had been unduly low in 1912-13. The largest decreases occurred in Tippera and Chittagong and were due to the substitution of a fixed duty for an outstill system. The decrease in Jalpaiguri was due to an attempt to keep license fees in the shops affected by smuggling from Bhutan at a figure which would give vendors a fair profit by selling at the maximum prices. The increase under the head of ganja was most marked in the 24-Parganas, Rangpur, Howrah, Dacca and Bogra. It was due partly to the same causes as contributed to an increase in the license fees for country spirit and partly to a deliberate attempt to increase the retail price of the drug. The increase in opium license fees was shared by every district. It was largest in Hooghly, Howrah, 24-Parganas and Calcutta, in which the restrictive system is in force, and in Midnapore, which adjoins them, and in which there was unusually keen competition.

SECTION II.—COUNTRY LIQUOR.

* * * * * *

Country Spirit.

Systems

14. There was no change in the systems of supply of country spirit during the year 1912-13. The contract supply system was in force in the Burdwan, Presidency and Rajshahi Divisions, the central or sadar distillery system in the Dacca Division, while the outstill system continued in the Chittagong Division.

Consumption of contract and distillery spirits.

15. The total consumption of contract and distillery spirits was 851,534 gallons L.P., as compared with 796,784 gallons L.P. in 1911-12, an increase of 54,750 gallons L.P. The Burdwan, Presidency and Rajshahi Divisions contributed an increase of 55,259 gallons, while the Dacca Division showed a decrease of 509 gallons. There was an increase in consumption in every district in the Presidency, except Mymensingh. In the Burdwan Division the increase was marked in Midnapore (3,806 gallons), Hooghly (3,763 gallons), Bankura (3,708 gallons), Howrah (2,833 gallons) and Burdwan (2,688 gallons). In Midnapore it was practically confined to the old outstill area, and has been attributed to the failure of the mahua crop and the consequent decrease in illicit practices, and to the reduction made in license fees which enabled the vendors to reduce the retail price. In Hooghly more than 70 per cent. of the increase occurred in the Serampore subdivision. It was due to the satisfactory condition of the jute trade, to the construction of new mills and to the settlement of shops at reduced fees. In the rest of the district the increase was chiefly due to good harvests, both of jute and paddy. In Bankura most of the increase took place in the old outstill area, and was chiefly the result of a poor mahua crop. In Howrah the main cause of the increase was the comparatively low incidence of license fees, which enabled many vendors to sell at rates which were considerably below the prescribed maximum prices, but the people were enabled to take advantage of these conditions by better harvests. Almost the whole of the increase in Burdwan occurred in the Sadar, Kalna and Katwa subdivisions. In the Sadar subdivision it was due to better harvests, and in the other two subdivisions to the opening of the Hooghly-Katwa Railway.

In the Presidency Division the increase was marked in Calcutta (13,535 gallons), the 24-Parganas (5,065 gallons), Murshidabad (1,323 gallons) and Nadia (1,065 gallons). Although the increase in Calcutta seems large, it only represents 4 per cent. of the consumption of the preceding year. It occurred for the most part in shops in the neighbourhood of markets, docks, mills and factories, and in localities inhabited by prostitutes, and was mainly due to general prosperity. At the same time it has followed a series of increases and cannot be regarded as an isolated circumstance. In the year 1907-08 the consumption of country spirit in Calcutta amounted to 336,248 L.P. gallons. In 1908-09 trade depression and a small increase of taxation reduced it to 270,715 L.P. gallons. Consumption has increased in each of the last four years, but it is only in 1912-13 that the figures for 1907-08 have been exceeded The Superintendent of Excise Revenue, Calcutta, considers that this continuous increase is in great measure due to the displacement of the cheaper brands of foreign liquor by country spirit, owing to the increase in the tariff rate and the restrictions imposed upon the manufacture and sale of foreign liquor, and reports that some of the larger compounders of foreign liquor are reducing their business. This will account for part of the increase, but it is also due in part to the fact that there has been little increase in the incidence of taxation and little alteration in prices for many years, although the circumstances of the consumers have improved. In the 24-Parganas the increase occurred mainly in the Barrackpore subdivision, where it was partly due to an influx of mill operatives, owing to the fact that some of the mills, which had been closed or working irregularly during the previous year, resumed work at full pressure, and partly to the settlement of shops at reduced fees. In Murshidabad the increase was most noticeable in the Sadar, Lalbagh and Jangipur subdivisions, in which there was an influx of coolies in connection with the construction of the Barharwa-Azimganj-Katwa Railway. Good harvests and low prices of food-grains also contributed to this increase. In Nadia the increase was ascribed to good harvests and to the presence of a large number of up-country coolies employed in the Lower Ganges Bridge construction work.

In the Rajshahi Division the increase was most marked in Malda (4,612 gallons), Dinajpur (4,023 gallons), Jalpaiguri (2,689 gallons), Rajshahi (2,556 gallons) and Rangpur (1,029 gallons). In Malda and Dinajpur the increase was mainly due to the more extensive use of contract liquor by the aboriginal consumers, amongst whom its flavour and its high price as compared with outstill liquor had rendered it unpopular when first introduced. The increase was also considerable in those shops in Dinajpur which are situated in business centres, and a considerable reduction in license fees in that district probably enabled some of the vendors to reduce their prices. In Jalpaiguri the increase was ascribed to the measures taken to check smuggling from Bhutan and Cooch Behar. In Rajshahi it was due to an influx of labourers in connection with the conversion of the main line of the Eastern Bengal State Railway to broad gauge, and in Rangpur to the immigration of a larger number of up-country coolies in search of work.

In the Dacca Division, Mymensingh showed a decrease of 1,525 gallons, whilst consumption increased slightly in Dacca, Faridpur and Bakarganj. The decrease in Mymensingh has been ascribed to a poor jute crop.

Total revenue from country spirit.

16. The total revenue from country spirit amounted to Rs. 64,10.188 as compared with Rs. 61,81,642 in 1911-12.

Revenue under contract supply and distillery systems.

17. The total revenue, license fees and duty under the contract and distillery systems was Rs. 63,27,403 against Rs. 60,84.239 in 1911-12. an increase of Rs. 2,43,164. The increase was mainly from duty (Rs. 2,32,931), and was shared in by all districts except Mymensingh. License fees showed an increase of Rs. 11,743 as compared with the figures of 1911-12. The increase in license fees was greatest in the Dacca Division (Rs. 32,301), the Rajshahi and Chittagong Divisions coming next in order with increases of Rs. 12,853 and Rs. 7,302, respectively. The increase of Rs. 7,302 in the Chittagong Division, where the contract system has been introduced from the 1st April 1913, represented the advance collections on account of license fees for the year 1913-14, and partly accounts for the decrease in outstill revenue in this division. There was a decline in the revenue from license fees in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions of Rs. 32,638 and Rs. 8,075, respectively.

The contract supply system has been introduced into the Dacca and Chittagong Divisions from 1st April 1913.

Outstill revenue.

18. The revenue from outstills was Rs. 82,785 against Rs. 97,403, showing a decrease of Rs. 14,618, due mainly to the fact that no advance fees for the year 1913-14 were taken into account under this head.

Country spirit licenses.

19. The number of licenses for the sale of country spirit (contract, sadar distillery and outstill) was 1,287, ten more than in the previous year. Thirteen new shops were opened after careful enquiry (Midnapore 5, Hooghly 1, Jessore 4, Khulna 1 and Bakarganj 2) to meet a local demand. Three shops were abolished as unnecessary, or in deference to local opinion. In Darjeeling the license of the country spirit shop at the 6th mile from Ghum was withdrawn during the year, as two salesmen were murdered in the shop while they were asleep at night, and it was considered inadvisable to continue the shop in the locality.

Convictions for drunkenness.

20. In Calcutta 7,581 persons were convicted of drunkenness against 7,092 in the previous year, showing an increase of 489. One of the retail vendors in Calcutta was found guilty of selling liquor to a drunken person and was punished by a departmental fine. As reported last year, fluctuations in these figures depend chiefly upon the degree of energy displayed by the local police, and cannot be relied upon as an indication of an actual increase or decrease of drunkenness.

Distilleries and warehouses.

21. There were two modern distilleries in the Presidency—at Asansol and Konnagar. Government distilleries existed at Russa, Dacca, Faridpur and Barisal. On the introduction of the contract supply system into the Dacca and Chittagong Divisions from 1st April 1913, the distilleries at Dacca, Faridpur and Barisal have been converted into warehouses for the storage of liquor, and six new warehouses have been opened at Mymensingh, Bhairab Bazar, Tangail, Netrokona, Chittagong and Comilla. On the other hand, five small warehouses at Bongong, Kushtia, Barasat, Bolpur and Contai Road have been closed from 1st April 1913. The monthly issues were too small to justify their maintenance, and the vendors can obtain their supplies from other warehouses without inconvenience. Messrs. Carow & Co., of Asansol, and Messrs. D. Waldie & Co., of Konnagar, have been given the contract for different districts in the Dacca and Chittagong Divisions. The Russa distillery supplied liquor to Calcutta and its suburbs and to the Sadar subdivisions of Howrah and the 24-Parganas. The Rajshahi Division received its supply from the distillery of the Cawnpore Sugar Works, Limited, at Marhourah in the Saran district in the province of Bihar and Orissa. The other areas under the contract system were supplied from Asansol or Konnagar. Molasses or mahua were the bases used in the manufacture of contract spirit.

TARI.

* * * * * *

Statistics:

23. The number of licenses increased from 1,919 to 1,981 ; but as 794 season tari licenses were issued in 1911-12, there was actually a decrease of 732 in the number of tari licenses issued. The total revenue from tari increased from Rs. 4.26,496 to Rs. 4,50,420.

Fermented tari.

24. The number of fermented tari licenses increased from 820 to 853. The increase was considerable in Murshidabad (26) and the 24-Parganas (23), and was required to meet the demand which had formerly been satisfied by season tari licenses. There was a decrease of five licenses in each of the districts of Hooghly and Calcutta. The other variations were small.

The bulk of the fermented tari revenue is derived from the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions and the district of Malda, which contributed Rs. 423,693 out of a total revenue under this head of Rs. 4.46,179. There was an increase of Rs. 23,785 as compared with the previous year. The increase was marked in the 24-Parganas (Rs. 11,745), Malda (Rs. 5,428), Howrah (Rs. 3,888), Chittagong (Rs. 2,313) and Hooghly (Rs. 1,059).

* * * * * *

Miscellaneous.

26. The Collectors of Burdwan, Birbhum, Howrah, 24-Parganas, Calcutta, Murshidabad and Malda report that fermented tari competes with country spirit to a certain extent in the hot months (April to June). when it is preferred by up-country men to country spirit as a cooling and more wholesome beverage.

PACHWAI.

Licenses.

27. * * * * * The total number of licenses issued for retail sale, home-brewing and special manufacture was 18,168, as compared with 18,162 in 1911-12—

Home-brewing	16,372	16,045
Special manufacture	416	716

The number of retail licenses increased in the 24-Parganas (19), Midnapore (11), Nadia (6) and Hooghly (1). There was a decrease of three shops in Murshidabad and of one in Darjeeling. In Midnapore the new shops were opened in the western or jungle area, where illicit manufacture of pachwai had been prevalent. The increase in the 24-Parganas and Nadia was due to the provision of shops to meet the demand of persons who had formerly taken out home-brewing licenses.

Twenty-one triennial licenses were in force in the Murshidabad district during the year.

The number of home-brewing licenses increased by 224 in Dinajpur and by 141 in Jalpaiguri, and decreased by 619 in Malda and 129 in Darjeeling. The large decrease in Malda is attributed by the Collector partly to the migration of a large number of Sonthals to the Nepal Terai and partly to a reluctance to take out licenses.

Most of the licenses for home-manufacture on special occasions were issued in the districts of Birbhum and Darjeeling. A few were issued in Midnapore, Calcutta and Jessore.

Revenue.

28. The revenue from retail license fees increased from Rs. 7,72,382 to Rs. 7,89,105, or by Rs. 16,723. The increase was considerable in Burdwan (Rs. 10,959) and Bankura (Rs. 10,878) and the decrease in Birbhum (Rs. 9,221). The revenue from home-brewing licenses was Rs. 43,459 in the year of report against Rs. 45,047 in 1911-12.

SECTION III.—FOREIGN LIQUOR.

* * * * * * *

Licenses and revenue.

30. The total number of licenses issued for the wholesale and retail vend of foreign liquor was 730 against 737 in the previous year. The decrease was most marked under the heads "hotel" (9) and "wholesale" (8). On the other hand there was an increase of 19 in the number of licenses for the sale of medicated wines. The total receipts from license fees amounted to Rs. 3,43,239 against Rs. 3,51,945 in the previous year. The receipts from duty on Indian-made foreign liquor were Rs. 2,26,303 against Rs. 1,99,255 in 1911-12.

Imports and issues of foreign liquor from the Custom Houses, Calcutta and Chittagong.

31. The following statistics of imports are quoted from the report of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, on the Maritime Trade in Bengal for the year 1912-13, and from a statement furnished by the Collector of Customs, Chittagong :—

	1911-12.		1912-13.

* * * * The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, explains the figures of imports into the port of Calcutta in 1912-13 as follows :—

"Imports of beer from the United Kingdom increased by 27 per cent. and from Germany by 14 per cent. The expansion in imports is partly due to the closing down of several breweries in Northern India.

"Imports of brandy rose by 8 per cent. and those of whisky fell by 6 per cent. Although more brandy was received, consumption fell by 15 per cent., and stocks were larger at the close of the year. A fall both in the import and consumption of whisky is possibly due to the heavy clearances in 1911-12 and to the carrying forward of large stocks. Receipts of inferior brandy and whisky from the Continent, including Germany, were small and showed no increase."

Duty-free spirits.

32. The following quantities of rum and rectified spirits were issued duty-free during the year :—

	L.P. gallons.
Shahjehanpur rum	289
Ditto rectified spirit	427
Asansol ditto	4,946
Madras ditto	5,710
Konnagar rum	3,760

* * * * * *

Issue of rectified spirit at the reduced rate of duty.

33. A total quantity of 3,783 L. P. gallons of rectified spirit made in Asansol and Madras was issued in Calcutta to wholesale chemists and druggists for the manufacture of medicines, chemicals or drugs, on payment of duty at the reduced rate of Rs. 7-13 per gallon L.P. The quantity of spirit issued at this privileged rate for the manufacture of medicines and tinctures by Messrs. D. Waldie and Company of Konnagar was 2,805 L. P. gallons.

* * * * * *

Locally manufactured Beer.

Number of breweries.

36. The number of breweries was three, as in the preceding year. The Gobra Brewery in Calcutta, which was never a financial success, practically stopped working in June 1912, and was eventually closed. * * * *

Consumption and revenue.

37. The total quantity of beer issued was 65,109 gallons as compared with 94,036 gallons in the preceding year.

Receipts from license fees and duty amounted to Rs. 12,778, against Rs. 18,592 in the previous year.

SECTION IV—HEMP DRUGS.

* * * * * *

Ganja.

Retail licenses.

42. The total number of licenses issued in the Presidency for the retail sale of ganja was 1,422 as compared with 1,434 in 1911-12. The license fees realised amounted to Rs. 14,62,589 against Rs. 14,52,312 in the previous year.

Consumption of ganja.

43. There was a net decrease of 15 maunds in the quantity of ganja consumed within the Presidency, the figures being 3,070 maunds against 3,085 maunds in 1911-12. The difference between the figures now given and those in last year's report is due to the fact that 31 maunds 32 seers of ganja which was exported to Hill Tippera and Nepal was shown as having been consumed in the Tippera and Malda districts. The fluctuation was distributed among the different divisions as follows :—

		Mds. s.
Burdwan	Increase ...	22 17
Presidency	Decrease ...	98 4
Dacca	Ditto ...	0 15
Chittagong	Increase ...	1 14
Rajshahi	Ditto ...	59 27

Consumption increased in every district in the Burdwan Division excepting Burdwan and Birbhum. In Birbhum the decrease was nominal. In Burdwan it was practically confined to the shops in the towns of Asansol and Raniganj. They were all settled with one vendor, who raised the retail price, with the result that consumption fell off. About half of the increase of 5 maunds 11 seers in the Bankura district took place in shops in the neighbourhood of Asansol and Raniganj, which were able to undersell the shops in those towns. The remainder was distributed throughout the district. The increase in Midnapore was caused by the low price at which the drug was sold by a vendor from Calcutta who secured four shops in the district. It was most marked in Midnapore town. There was an increase of 17¼ maunds in the Hooghly district. Nearly 13 maunds is accounted for by the shops at Hooghly, Chinsura, Bandel and Mahesh, which sold at specially low rates to attract customers from a distance, and particularly mill hands from the Barrackpore subdivision. A considerable reduction in license fees probably enabled vendors to reduce their prices to a lower figure than would otherwise have been possible. The balance was distributed among the shops in the Sadar and Serampore subdivisions. The increase of 3¼ maunds in Howrah is attributed to sales at lower prices in some shops, with the object of preventing the local consumers from going to Calcutta and to the nearest shops in the Midnapore district for their supplies, and to the extension of mills at Bowria and Manikpur.

The decrease in the Presidency Division was confined to the 24-Parganas and Calcutta. The consumption of ganja in these two districts has, for the last ten years, increased or decreased simultaneously. In the year under report the decrease of 7 maunds 15 seers in the 24-Parganas can be accounted for by the increase in the district of Hooghly. But it is more difficult to account for the enormous decrease of 113½ maunds in Calcutta. There can be no doubt that it was largely due to an increase in the retail price. The price of ganja in Calcutta was formerly very low ; and when a considerable increase in license fees took place in 1911-12, the vendors attempted to stimulate consumption by reducing their prices still further, with the result that during the first quarter of that year consumption increased by 26½ maunds. They found, however, that this policy did not pay them, and increased their prices. The result of the whole year's working was a decrease of 3½ maunds as compared with 1910-11. Even so, the retail price was only Rs. 20 per seer, and was still the lowest in the Presidency. During 1912-13 the retail price advanced still further, and is reported to have averaged Rs. 30 per seer in the town proper and Rs. 35 in the suburban areas. Whilst consumption has decreased in almost every shop, the fall has been most marked in shops situated near market places and in localities largely inhabited by the lower classes. Calcutta is a distributing centre and is visited by large numbers of persons from other districts. For example, the number of boatmen visiting the port with merchandise is very large, and many up-country labourers come annually for work and return home with their savings. If ganja is cheap in Calcutta, they naturally provide themselves with a supply sufficient to last them for some time ; but they will be less likely to do so if it is no cheaper, or little cheaper, than at home. Many persons, again, come into Calcutta for the day. A diminished demand from visitors would go some way towards accounting for the decreased consumption in the shops near the market places, though the total decrease in Calcutta much more than counterbalances any increase in other parts of the Presidency. Again, the reduction in the amount of ganja, which may be legally possessed from 20 tolas to 5 tolas, has probably had some effect on purchases by persons from distant places. The results of this measure would have been obscured during part of the first year of its operation, when prices were for a time as low as Rs. 12-8 per seer, by the increased local consumption, but they would tend to accentuate any decrease resulting from a smaller consumption of ganja in Calcutta itself. An increase in the price of the drug again affects consumption by the poorer classes of consumers first, and the tendency for the decrease to be marked in the poorer neighbourhoods is a further indication that it is primarily the result of higher prices. In view of the enhancement of the rate of duty with effect from 1st April 1913, orders were issued that vendors should not be permitted to take more ganja than they were likely to sell within the year. This probably contributed to the decrease in consumption (the figures for which are based upon issues to shops and not upon retail sales). But even after all these factors have been taken into consideration, the decrease in consumption appears to be abnormal. There was a small increase in the consumption of charas, but this would not account for any marked decrease in the consumption of ganja. The consumption of ganja may have been influenced by cocaine, which appears to be consumed in ever increasing quantities in Calcutta ; but it is impossible to gauge the extent of the fluctuations in the consumption of this drug, and it is not certain whether, or to what extent, it is used as a substitute for ganja.

There were marked increases in Nadia (10 maunds), Jessore (5 maunds) and Khulna (6 maunds , whilst the increase in Murshidabad was small. Part of the increase was probably due to the fact that ganja was purchased locally instead of in Calcutta, and part to the general prosperity of the consumers. The influx of coolies for work on the Lower Ganges Bridge contributed to the increased consumption in Nadia.

In the Dacca Division decreases in Dacca and Mymensingh were counterbalanced by an increase in Faridpur, whilst consumption remained practically stationary in Bakarganj. The decrease of 4 maunds in Dacca took place in the town shops and is attributed to the territorial changes which diminished the importance of the place. That of 11 maunds in Mymensingh is almost negligible in comparison with the total amount consumed and is reported to be due to a decrease in the practice of hawking ganja since the legal limit of possession was reduced. The Collector of Faridpur is unable to account satisfactorily for an increase of 14 maunds, which was shared by all localities. The consumption of ganja in this district has increased from 57 maunds in 1908-09 to 97 maunds in 1912-13, notwithstanding a reduction in the number of shops from 52 to 37, and, although there is no clear evidence that there has been a decrease in prices, which cover a wide range, there appears to be reason to believe that the concentration of sales in fewer places has reduced expenses and enabled the vendors to stimulate consumption by selling cheaper.

* * * * In the Rajshahi Division consum tion increased in Dinajpur (20½ maunds), Pabna (16 maunds), Rajshahi '10 maunda), Rangpur (5½ maunds), Malda (5 maunds) and Bogra 6 (maunds). In Dinajpur prices were kept down by competition ; and as a large increase in consumption in 1911-12 had been followed by a reduction instead of an enhancement of license fees, the vendors can have had little difficulty in stimulating consumption by selling cheap The Collector of Pabna reports that the ganja habit is spreading among the upper classes, and that ganja is sometimes used by prostitutes as a cheap substitute for liquor. The Collector of Rangpur has also reported that some persons have taken to ganja instead of country spirits since the introduction of the contract system caused an increase in the price of the latter article ; but the consumption of country spirit increased in both these districts during the year under report, and these explanations can hardly be accepted as accounting for the whole of the increase in the consumption of ganja. The increases in Rajshahi and Bogra are partly due to the high wholesale price of ganja which diminished the temptation to sell it illicitly at the time of manufacture and partly to the presence of a number of up-country coolies for work on the railway. The smaller temptation to smuggle ganja probably contributed to the increased consumption in Dinajpur and Rangpur, but the increase in the latter district is chiefly attributed by the Collector to the presence of an unusually large number of coolies from up-counntry during the cold weather. In Malda there is said to have been no marked fluctuation in any particular area, and in all these districts general prosperity contributed largely to the increase in consumption. The decrease of four maunds in Jalpaiguri is attributed to higher prices.

Total revenue.

44. The receipts for the year totalled Rs. 29,08,174 as compared with Rs. 29,30,079 in the preceding year, the net decrease being Rs. 21,905, , License fees showed an increase, the decrease being entirely under duty.

Incidence of taxation.

45. The incidence of total taxation per seer of ganja consumed was 22·9 against 22·6 in 1911 12.

With a view to checking the general increase in the consumption of this drug, the rate of duty has been raised from Rs. 11 to Rs. 15 per seer from 1st April 1913. The license fees obtained during the last auctions showed an increase of Rs. 1,66.960. It is hoped that a general enhancement of retail prices will follow, and that consumption will decrease.

* * * * * * *

Cultivation and outturn of ganja at Naogaon in Rajshahi.

48. The high price of ganja attracted more applications for permission to cultivate than in the preceding year. Three thousand six hundred and thirty-five applications were received for an area of 5,901 bighas against 2,666 applications for an area of 4,257 bighas in 1911-12. Two thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine licenses covering an area of 3,102 bighas 19 cottahs 10 chittaks were granted, as compared with 2,578 licenses covering an area of 2,946 bighas 15 cottahs 10 chittaks in the preceding year. The selection of licensees was made, for the most part, on the basis of good outturn in the past, and many new cultivators were granted licenses. Heavy rain and high floods washed the manure from the ganja fields in the middle of July, and many of the licensed lands were submerged. This fact, and the low stock of ganja in the public golas, necessitated the cultivation of a larger area than was at first intended. The licensing work commenced in April and was finished in May. The licenses were distributed in June, except those for the additional area, for which licenses were issued in August. The area under cultivation was sufficiently tested. The area actually cultivated was 3,062 bighas 15 cottahs 6 chittaks against 2,957 bighas 13 cottahs 9 chitaks in the preceding year.

* * * * The outturn amounted to 9,085 maunds 4 seers 3 chittaks, the average per bigha being 2 maunds 38 seers 8 chittaks against 2 maunds 18 seers 2 chittaks in the preceding season. * *

Manufacture and storage.

49. * * * * The cost of manufacture of the drug is reported to have been Rs. 30-10 per maund against Rs. 30-3 in the preceding year.

* * * * * *

The total quantity of ganja exported from Naogaon during the year amounted to 6,956 maunds 25 seers against 8,164 maunds 1 seer 11 chittaks in the previous year. The falling off in exports (1,207 maunds 16 seers 11 chittaks) was due to the high price of ganja. The decrease was shared by all Provinces and States, with the exception of the Tributary States of Orissa.

* * * * * *

Bhang.

Licenses and revenue.

52. The number of retail licenses in the year under report was 235 against 232 in the preceding year. The number was very small, except in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions. The total number of druggists' permits issued was 209 against 176 in the preceding year. There were noticeable increases in Bogra (38) and Mymensingh (14), due to the fact that action was taken to make the local kabirajes aware that such permits were necessary to enable them to deal in preparations which contained bhang. The total revenue from both license fees and duty amounted to Rs. 1,02,745 as compared with Rs. 1,01,435 in 1911-12.

Consumption.

53. The total consumption within the province amounted to 698 maunds 27 seers, against 813 maunds 11 seers in the preceding year. The consumption was distributed as follows :—

	Mds.	s.
Burdwan Division	154	28
Presidency „	509	36
Dacca „	24	25
Chittagong „	7	14
Rajshahi „	2	4

* * * * The only considerable fluctuation in consumption took place in Calcutta, where there was a decrease of 119 maunds 22 seers against an increase of 164 maunds in 1911-12. The increase in 1911-12 was largely due to temporary causes. A further increase in license fees had the effect of increasing the retail price and contributed to the reduced consumption.

* * * * * * *

Charas.

Licenses and revenue.

54. * * * * The total number of retail licenses was 51 against 49 in the preceding year. The total revenue amounted to Rs. 59,158 as compared with Rs. 61,163 in 1911-12. The decrease was entirely under the head of duty. The issue of charas to vendors of other districts declined considerably in Calcutta, and the decrease in duty was Rs. 3,359 in this district alone. On the other hand, there was an increase of Rs. 1,079 in the duty realised on charas transported to other districts from Malda. There were no marked variations elsewhere.

Imports.

55. The total quantity of charas imported was 32 maunds 36 seers against 39 maunds 39 seers in the previous year. The wholesale dealers of Calcutta, Birbhum and Malda imported the drug direct from the Punjab, and supplied vendors in the other districts.

* * * * * *

SECTION V.—OPIUM.

General.

57. The restrictive system in regard to the issue of opium to retail shops on their estimated demand continued in Calcutta, and in the districts of Hooghly, Howrah, the 24-Parganas and Chittagong. The supply of opium to most of the shops in the Bakarganj district was also based on their average consumption. It appears that the method followed by the local officers in fixing allowances of opium to shops is not uniform in all districts. The matter is receiving attention. The special system of licensing opium shops by lottery among persons previously approved by the Collector continued in Chittagong.

Licenses for retail sale.

58. The total number of licenses issued for the retail sale of opium was 891 against 1,022 in 1911-12, showing a decrease of 131 licenses. The decrease was mainly due to the abolition of 126 shops in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions, which was referred to in last year's report.

Druggists' permits.

59. As a result of the care exercised by District Officers in the issue of druggists' permits, the number in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions was reduced from 556 in 1911-12 to 307 in the year under review. In the Dacca, Chittagong and Rajshahi Divisions the number was 228 in 1912-13 against 215 in 1911-12. The number of licenses for the sale of poppy-heads was 12 against 14 in the previous year.

Consumption and duty

60. The total quantity of opium consumed within the Presidency was 1,697 maunds 17 seers as compared with 1,668 maunds 9 seers in the previous year, an increase of 29 maunds 8 seers.

The increase exceeded two maunds in Bankura, Midnapore, Hooghly, 24-Parganas, Nadia, Khulna, Rajshahi, Dacca, Faridpur and Bakarganj. The greater part of the increase in Bankura took place in the shops near the border of Burdwan, and is largely accounted for by a decrease in that district. The Collector of Hooghly again attributes the increase in his district to the fact that there was less importation from Calcutta by local consumers owing to the higher prices in the latter place. The Collector of Midnapore gives a similar explanation, and adds that more opium was sold to consumers from the Balasore district and the Mayurbhanj State where the retail price is higher. The Collectors of Nadia and Dacca suspect that the increased consumption is due to smuggling, and the Collector of Rajshahi attributes it to the presence of coolies at work on the railway. In the 24-Parganas it is attributed to an increase in the number of opium-eaters among the mill hands, in Khulna to purchases by persons from the neighbouring districts, in all of which, however, consumption increased, and in Bakarganj to the presence of a number of Magh settlers in the Sundarbans. There can be little doubt that the enforcement of the restrictive system in Calcutta has had the effect of increasing consumption in other districts, and especially in those with which communication by rail or water is easy, and in which issues are not restricted, or in which restrictions are not as rigidly applied. It is less certain that the increase is entirely due to purchases by local consumers. The allowances to the shops in Calcutta were based on the amount which, it was estimated, was sold in them in a normal year, and this would have included sales to purchasers from other districts. There has been no decrease below this estimated amount in Calcutta, and the total amount of opium issued in the Presidency is steadily increasing It is significant that, with the exception of Bankura and Rajshahi, where other explanations are forthcoming, all the districts which show a marked increase are either close to Calcutta or directly connected by water with Chittagong. It is difficult to resist the conclusion that, now that the opium smugglers have found that supplies in Calcutta and Chittagong are strictly limited, they are turning to fresh sources. The increase in Bakarganj is almost entirely due to one shop in a neighbourhood inhabited by Magh immigrants from Chittagong and Arakan, and, although the Colonization Officer does not suspect smuggling and no case has been detected, it is hardly likely that they would fail to turn the large difference in prices to account.

* * * * * *

Six districts show a decrease in consumption. * * * * The Collector of Mymensingh reports that the steady decrease in that district is due to the fact that the opium habit is not spreading, and that as opium-eaters die their places are not taken by others. The decreases in Chittagong and Bogra are nominal, though that in the former district is satisfactory evidence of the efficient working of the restrictive system.

* * * * * *

Total receipts.

61. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 23,76,309 against Rs. 22,61,293, showing an increase of Rs. 1,15,016, or 5 per cent., while consumption only rose by 1·7 per cent.

Madak and chandu.

62. The habit of opium smoking was prevalent in a few districts only, notably in Calcutta, Burdwan, Midnapore, Dacca and Malda, and the Collectors report that it is confined mostly to low class Muhammadans in the towns, and is not spreading.

Morphia and opium pills.

63. The use of morphia as a substitute for opium has been reported to exist to a limited extent in Hooghly, Calcutta and Nadia.

The use of opium pills has not been reported from any district.

* * * * * *

SECTION VI.—COCAINE.

* * * * * *

66. * * * * Two hundred and fifty-five licenses were issued for the sale or possession of cocaine against 275 in 1911-12. Sixteen licenses were issued free to managers of hospitals or dispensaries not under Government supervision, viz., 14 for tea gardens in the Jalpaiguri district and 2 for the charitable dispensaries at Domkal and Nasipur in the district of Murshidabad. The largest reduction took place in Dacca, where the number of licenses was reduced from 29 to 5. The result was to give a monopoly to certain druggists, to the inconvenience of the public, and the number of licenses has been slightly increased during the current year. Separate licenses for novocaine, eucaine lactate and holocaine were only issued in Calcutta. The number of such licenses was 13 in each year. The receipts from license fees amounted to Rs. 248.

Licenses and revenue.

67. In Calcutta, where illicit dealings in cocaine are very prevalent and are carried on on an extensive scale, the Preventive officers of the Excise, Customs and Police Departments continued to be very vigilant. The quantity of cocaine seized in Calcutta during the year was no less than 5,438 ounces. The Superintendent of Excise Revenue, Calcutta, reports that he instituted a day and night watch over particular dens. This had the effect of scaring away customers and of closing the dens, at least for the time being. * * * * *

Prevertive operations and illicit transactions.

So far as the district reports disclose, the cocaine habit has not yet spread beyond the districts of Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, and the 24-Parganas, and the cities of Calcutta and Dacca, though a case was detected for the first time in Faridpur during the year.

SECTION VII.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE EXCISE AND OPIUM LAWS.

* * * * * *

68. The total number of persons arrested during the year was 3,401 as compared with 2,904 in the previous year. Three thousand and sixteen persons were convicted against 2,564 in the preceding year. There was a marked increase in the number of arrests made in Bankura (45), Hooghly (70), Howrah (34), 24-Parganas (278), Calcutta (35), Jalpaiguri (64) and Rangpur (30). The decrease in the number of arrests occurred chiefly in the districts of Midnapore (109), Dacca (21) and Malda (27)

Arrests and convictions.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS

For the week ending on the 6th October 1913.

Summary.—During the week under review moderate rain fell nearly all over the province doing much good to the standing crops, the condition of which is generally favourable, except in the flood-affected areas. Weeding of winter rice and harvesting of aus rice and jute are still going on. Lands are being prepared for rabi crops, but their sowings have not yet begun. Cattle-disease is reported in five districts. Want of fodder is felt in three districts. Agricultural loans are being issued to the flood-afflicted people of the Burdwan Division. There is no demand for gratuitous relief on a large scale at present.

The senior Judge of the High Court on the Committee will act as Chairman.

2. The Committee for the purpose of these regulations shall be assisted by a paid Secretary, to be appointed by the Committee in consultation with Government.

3. Government will from time to time, on the recommendation of the Committee, appoint Examiners in Law. Examiners shall ordinarily be selected from among gentlemen practising as advocates or vakils in the High Court, but the Committee may at its discretion recommend any other person whom it considers to be duly qualified.

4. The examination of candidates shall be held on such dates within the month of February or March in each year as shall be appointed and duly notified by the Committee.

5. The examination of candidates for Pleadership shall be held in Calcutta: the examination for Mukhtars shall be held at Calcutta, Gauhati and Sylhet.

6. The examination shall be conducted in English by written questions.

7. The questions shall be prepared by the Examiners and shall be so framed as to test the knowledge of the candidates in the subjects mentioned in the rules passed by the High Court for the qualification, admission, and enrolment of Pleaders and Mukhtars in Mufassal Courts, and they shall be so drawn that a candidate may be able to pass by studying the regulations, enactments, and text-books therein specified.

8. The number of marks to which each candidate shall be entitled for his answers to the questions shall be determined by the Examiners, subject to the control of the Committee.

9. No candidate will be allowed to take into the examination room any books, private memoranda or paper of any description, and any one detected in doing so will not be permitted to undergo examination. Any candidate found to be using unfair means while undergoing examination may be summarily ejected from the examination room, and refused admittance for the remaining portion of the examination.

All cases in which candidates use or attempt to use any unfair means in connection with the examination, or in which any person assists or attempts to assist any candidate by unfair means, shall be reported to the Committee. The Committee shall have power to pass any order which it may consider to be proper, including forfeiture of all benefit from any part of the examination already undergone, forfeiture of fees paid and prohibition from appearance at the remaining portion of the examination, or at all or any future examinations.

10. When the examination shall have been concluded, the Committee shall submit to Government the names of those candidates who have passed, together with a report of their proceedings.

11. The names of the successful candidates shall be published in—

(1) the Calcutta Gazette,
(2) the Bihar and Orissa Gazette,
(3) the Assam Gazette, and certificates under the signatures of the Chairman and Secretary of the Committee shall be forwarded for distribution to the successful candidates by the Judges of their respective districts.

12. Government will from time to time in consultation with the Committee determine the amounts of the fees to be paid by candidates, and the emoluments to be received by the Secretary and the Examiners, and similar matters. In all points in which the interests of Government are affected, the Committee shall consult Government.

13. The Committee will from time to time determine the number of papers to be set, the number of questions to be comprised in each, the marks to be allotted to each paper, the marks required for a pass, and similar matters.

Provided that the amounts of the fees to be paid by candidates under rule 13, and the matters determined by the Committee specified in rule 14, shall be set out in the notification to be published under rule 4.

14. The examination of candidates for Mukhtarships held at Gauhati and Sylhet will be conducted, under the orders of the Committee of Legal Education, by a Superintendent, to be appointed by the Chief Commissioner of Assam. Such Superintendent may be a judicial officer, or other officer of Government who may be available for the duty, provided that, as a general rule, District Judges and Subordinate Judges should not be so employed. The Superintendent will receive no fee.

These regulations will come into operation on the 1st December 1913.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE BENGAL SMOKE-NUISANCES COMMISSION FOR THE YEAR 1912-13.

No. 212T.—Marine.

Government of Bengal.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Dated Darjeeling, the 1st October 1913.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

Letter No. 174, dated the 11th July 1913, from the President, Bengal Smoke-nuisances Commission, forwarding the report of the Commission for the year 1912-13.

THE Commission held 12 meetings during the year 1912-13.

The Chief and Assistant Inspectors made 4,683 observations of smoke emission against 4,463 in 1911-12. They visited 246 factories, in the course of which they tested fuel and appliances.

2. The provisions of the Act were extended during the year to all areas within the local limits of the Tollygunge, Garden Reach and South Suburban Municicalities, in the district of the 24-Parganas, other than the areas in those municipalities in which the Act was already in force. The total area under the jurisdiction of the Commission was thus raised to 64 square miles.

3. There has been some improvement in the abatement of the smoke-nuisance, the average emission of dense smoke having been still further reduced. At the instance of the Commission a revised scale of limits of time for the emission of such smoke was adopted during the year, which entirely prohibited, for the first time, the emission of smoke of the scale of greatest density, viz., No. 6. The Commission report that no difficulty has been experienced in working the revised scale and that it is easily complied with.

4. While there has been steady progress in the abatement of smoke from factories, steamers, &c., considerable difficulty has been experienced in dealing with the nuisance caused by the manufacture of coke in open fires, and in the emission of smoke from certain lime-kilns, which is serious enough to obstruct the navigation of vessels plying on the Hooghly, and a proposal has been made to remove this difficulty by an amendment of the law. The matter is still under the consideration of Government, together with other suggested amendments of the Act. One of these is that plans of all chimneys and flues should be approved by the Commission before construction, the object being to prevent the erection of unsafe chimneys and also to afford owners the advantage of the Commission's experience in the matter.

On the recommendation of the Commission a set of rules providing for the examination of stokers and the grant of certificates of competency to them was sanctioned during the year. It is hoped that, with a body of stokers trained in the management of furnaces, much of the nuisance due to ignorant management of furnaces may be obviated.

5. The Governor in Council is pleased to note that the public continue to show confidence in the work of the Commission. Only 39 complaints were received during the year from the public. They were promptly attended to and relief was generally obtained when necessary with but little trouble. The number of statutory warnings issued during the year amounted to 59 only against 72 in the previous year. In addition to these, 411 notices were forwarded to the parties concerned in connection with nuisances from steamships, steam-launches, locomotives and road-rollers, with much success, the men responsible being dealt with departmentally.

The number of prosecutions was 26 against 47 in the previous year. A conviction was obtained in every case.

6. The use of electricity, oil and gas as sources of power and heat, which conduces to the mitigation of smoke-nuisances, continues to increase but slowly. During the year about 100 electric motors, having a total of about 1,400 B.H.P., were introduced, many of them replacing steam engines and boilers.

7. The thanks of Government are due to the public for their continued co-operation in the work of the Commission, and also to the President and Members of the Commission for their efficient administration of the Act during the year.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, the President of the Smoke-nuisances Commission, the Commissioners, Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, the Chairman, Calcutta Corporation, the Vice-Chairman, Port Commissioners. Calcutta, the Secretary, Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the Secretary, Calcutta Trades Association, the Honorary Secretary to the Bengal National Chamber of Commerce, the Vice-President of the City Improvement Trust, Calcutta, and the Municipal Department of this Government.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Governor in Council,

H. H. GREEN,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The Administration Report of the Commissioners of the Port of Chittagong for the year 1912-13.

Income.—The ordinary receipts of the Port Fund during the year, exclusive of grants from Government for dredging and revetment, amounted to Rs. 2,29,361 as against Rs. 1,89,128, the receipts of the previous year, an increase of 21·27 per cent. This increase is chiefly due to receipts amounting to Rs. 46,980 on account of the Customs duty on jute, a new source of income of the port sanctioned by Government with effect from the 1st July 1912. The income from this source more than fulfilled the expectations of the Commissioners. There were noticeable increases also under the heads "Port" and "River dues," indicating greater activity in the trade of the port. There were no special items of receipts such as those adjusted during the previous year, and the contribution from the Pilotage fund shewed a decrease of over Rs. 20,000 owing to the fact that large arrears from previous years had been paid up in 1911-12.

The capital value of the Port Commissioners' properties, including light-houses, lands, works (finished and in progress), stores and materials, vessels, cash and securities, &c., was estimated at the end of the year under review to be Rs. 35,36,306 as against Rs. 34,83,336 at the close of the preceding year.

Expenditure.—The ordinary expenditure of the Port Fund was Rs. 1,79,758 as against Rs. 1,77,429 during the previous year. Increased expenditure was incurred during the year on repairs to vessels and buildings and the purchase of materials and stores. A residence for the Workshop Foreman was under construction during the year. There were economies, on the other hand, under establishment, due to a larger share of the Port Officer's salary having been borne by Government since the 22nd May 1912, and to the reduction of the Port Police establishment.

No loan was taken by the Commissioners during the year. The annual equated instalments of previous loans, aggregating Rs. 36,172-11-7, were, as usual, paid from the Port Fund. The outstanding balance of loans on the 31st March 1913 was Rs. 5,82,340-13-8. The capital expenditure incurred from the Port Fund was Rs. 13,084 only.

The opening and closing balances of the Port Fund were Rs. 1,59,465 and Rs. 64,041, respectively, exclusive of investments, of which the face value amounted to Rs. 1,44,000 at the close of March 1913, as compared with Rs. 24,905 at the end of the preceding year.

Dredger.—The total quantity of dredging done during the year was the highest on record since dredging operations were started. This was due to the satisfactory working of the dredger in spite of the fact that it was laid up for repairs for three months during the working season. The question of providing a second dredger is a matter of great importance and is now under the consideration of Government. The actual depth of water for navigating purposes on the outer bar was maintained at 13 feet at low water throughout the year. Over the inner bar the dredger was at work for 147 days, and the whole of the main track over this bar was deepened to 13 feet at low water.

The expenditure on the maintenance of the dredger was Rs. 88,000. The total amount at credit of the dredger account was Rs. 1,50,221, including a Government grant of Rs. 92,000.

River surveys.—A survey of the Chittagong river with all the navigable route from the sea was completed during the year. The inner and outer bars were sounded and plotted twice a month.

Revetment.—The Government grants placed at the disposal of the Port Commissioners for the revetment work up to the end of 1911-12 amounted to Rs. 16,13,895, which, together with the sum of Rs. 58,000 granted by Government during the year under review, raised the total to Rs. 16,71,895. The total expenditure on revetment from 1904-05 up to end of 1912-13 has been Rs. 21,61,285, deducting the receipts from the hire of barges and steamers and the sale proceeds of land, old stock, &c.

The main revetment on the right bank was not extended during the year and no new supply of stone was received, but some 2½ lakhs of cubic feet of stone had to be utilised from the reserve to protect some portions of the slope which were attacked with special force. The bye-channel appears to have been successfully blocked by the bund erected across it, though some scour had to be dealt with during the spring-tides.

Light-houses.—The Kutubdia and Norman's Point Light-houses were maintained in good order.

Leading lights.—The leading lights were exhibited on requisition, on a few occasions only, for vessels that entered and left the port at night.

Light vessel.—The light vessel was removed from her station on the 2nd January 1913 and replaced in position on the 2nd March 1913. The total cost of maintenance was Rs. 17,991.

Shipping.—The number of vessels (including native sailing vessels) that entered the port during the year was 811 with a nett registered tonnage of 406,038 as against 388 with a nett registered tonnage of 367,048. The increase, however, is mainly due to the fact that the vessels of the Rivers Steam Navigation and the India General Navigation and Railway Companies and the Retriever Flotilla Company have been taken into account for the first time during the year.

There were five accidents to vessels, of which two were cases of fire on board vessels while lying alongside the Railway jetties.

Trade.—The total value of the trade, both foreign and coasting, imports and exports, amounted to Rs. 879·81 lakhs as against Rs. 784·06 lakhs in the previous year, showing an improvement of over 12 per cent. The increase is an indication of the general prosperity of the port, the improvement being impartially spread over imports and exports, foreign and coasting trade alike.

Sanitation.—The general sanitation of the port was satisfactory. No case of infectious disease was imported. All vessels bound for or coming from foreign ports were examined by the Health Officer of the port.

The thanks of Government are due to Mr. E. Geake, I.C.S., Chairman, and the Commissioners for their efficient administration of the Trust during the year.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE VETERINARY COLLEGE AND OF THE CIVIL VETERINARY DEPARTMENT, BENGAL, FOR THE YEAR 1912-13.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

AGRICULTURE.

DARJEELING, THE 14TH OCTOBER 1913.

RESOLUTION—No. 2706 T.—R.

READ—

The Annual Reports of the Veterinary College and of the Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal, for the year 1912-13, with the Director of Agriculture's review thereof.

MAJOR A. SMITH was attached to the Bengal Veterinary College from his arrival on the 15th April, 1912, and performed the duties of Principal during the absence, on vacation leave, of Colonel Raymond, who retired on the 4th June. On that date Major Smith took formal charge of the appointment which he held till the close of the year. As a temporary arrangement, the work of the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal, was carried out in the Eastern Bengal districts by Mr. Harris (Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Assam), and in the West Bengal districts by Mr. Quinlan (Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Bihar and Orissa), for the first three weeks of the year. Major Smith then held the post in addition to his own duties until the 28th October 1912, when Mr. P. J. Kerr joined from Madras. Major Smith's other duties precluded him from making any tour, but Mr. Kerr was on tour for 61 days between the end of October and the close of the year.

2. The number of students on the college roll at the end of the session was 99, of whom 88 were stipendiary students, as compared with 110, 138 and 132 in the three preceding years. The decrease which was noticed last year continued and is ascribed mainly to the poorness of the prospects of those who go through the course. The matter is under the consideration of Government, and it is hoped that means will shortly be devised to increase the popularity of the college. The percentage of passes in the final examination was 73·4, as compared with 79·38 last year. In the previous year the number of scholarships had been 33, all of a uniform value of Rs. 5. In order to reward those who passed with distinction and to afford an incentive to better work, the scholarships were graduated from Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 during the year, and the total number reduced to 24 so as to keep the total value the same as before.

3. In last year's Resolution on the work of the Veterinary Department the Governor in Council noticed with satisfaction the excellent results achieved in the Raymond Research Laboratory, and His Excellency is glad to see that steady progress is still being maintained. The laboratory has been improved by the addition of up-to-date electrical apparatus. It was able to supply the British Commission on Foot and Mouth Disease and the Government Serologist with a large amount of material for their work; and a number of spleen smears of dogs were examined on behalf of Dr. Percival Mackie, I.M.S., who has been working on Kala-Azar under the Indian Research Fund. An important and interesting achievement is the cure—the first reported in Bengal—of a case of equine Surra by a method suggested by the Imperial Bacteriologist. A start was made in investigating the proportions of fat during the milking period of the various breeds of Bengal cattle. Five officers of the Veterinary Department (one from Bihar) were trained at the laboratory in special advanced branches of veterinary science.

4. The report of the Civil Veterinary Department shows a further considerable decline in the mortality of bovines from contagious diseases. This is attributed to less actual disease and also to better reporting on the part of police officers, whereby the prompt and effective attendance of veterinary assistants was secured. This is satisfactory, but the system of reporting is still far from perfect, and the possibility of improving it has been under the consideration of Government during the year. The solution appears to lie in the direction of utilizing other Government servants who are in a position to obtain information of the outbreak of cattle disease to supplement the reports now submitted by the police. By far the largest number of deaths from bovine contagious diseases, viz., 5,154 out of a total death-roll of 7,637, was caused by rinderpest. The mortality would have been far more serious but for the valuable results obtained from preventive inoculation. There were 146 outbreaks of this disease, resulting in the death of 2,067 uninoculated animals. On the other hand, out of 19,085 animals which were inoculated, only 43 or about 0·2 per cent. died. Similarly, there were only 3 deaths among 2,407 animals inoculated for hæmorrhagic septicæmia, and only one out of 286 inoculated for anthrax. It is reported that considerable prejudice against inoculation still exists among the cultivators. Only time can cure this, and the Governor in Council is confident that the persistent and tactful efforts of the officers of the Veterinary Department will in the end overcome objections which are due to ignorance and inexperience.

5. The itinerant veterinary assistants visited 10,409 villages as against 8,055 in the previous year. Three new assistants were appointed during the year, bringing the number up to 62, excluding the 5 divisional inspectors. This number falls far short of that which it is hoped eventually to reach, viz., two veterinary assistants to each subdivision; but there are hopeful signs that local bodies are beginning to realize their responsibilities in this direction, and several applications have recently been received by Government for additional officers.

6. The stables in Calcutta and the neighbourhood, in the area under the Glanders Act, were regularly inspected by the staff of the Veterinary College. A further decrease in cases of glanders was observed, the disease occurring in only 4 stables as against 15 last year. But there was an increase in cases in the mufassal, 240 out of a total of 260 deaths occurring in the Sodepur Pinjrapole. There were severe outbreaks in Barisal and Mymensingh. The question of extending the provisions of the Glanders and Farcy Act, which in the eastern districts has hitherto been in force only in a few specified areas, has been engaging the attention of Government, and orders will shortly be issued bringing the Act into force throughout the province. The Governor in Council notes with satisfaction that Mr. Kerr is able to report that comparatively little trouble has been experienced this year in enforcing the provisions of the Act, and that the obstructive attitude of some municipalities, to which a reference was made in last year's review, has, except in one instance, given place to a more reasonable policy.

7. The number of patients treated at the various dispensaries shows a large increase, viz., from 17,289 to 22,106, or over 27 per cent. Rather less than one-fourth were in-patients. Satisfactory progress is shown in practically all the districts of the province. At Dacca considerable difficulty has been experienced in selecting a site for the new veterinary hospital, which is greatly needed, and special difficulties have been reported from Burdwan and Mymensingh, which will be dealt with in due course. In connection with the remarks made in last year's Resolution on the subject of the want of accommodation for in-patients at certain places, the Superintendent states that the only places where such accommodation is urgently required are Bakarganj and Dacca. Proposals for erecting a new dispensary building with all the necessary accommodation at Dacca are now under consideration, and the Governor in Council will issue orders to the Director of Agriculture to submit a scheme for Bakarganj as soon as possible.

8. The difficult and important question of the improvement of cattle breeding has continued to engage the attention of Government and of the Agricultural Department. Shortly before the close of the year the sanction of Government was accorded to the establishment of a cattle and cultivation farm at Rangpur, and a prominent place in the work of the farm will be given to the improvement of the breed of cattle. The main object of the farm is to demonstrate to private persons the feasibility of such undertakings and the possibility of working them at a profit, and it is hoped that, if success attends the present experiment, Government will ultimately be able to withdraw in favour of private enterprise. Progress, however, must necessarily be slow, and the gloomy picture which Mr. Kerr draws of the present position as regards cattle-breeding clearly shows that it would be idle to expect any material improvement in the breed of cattle in Bengal for some years to come. Use is made of debilitated and badly shaped bulls, and little or no care is taken to prevent in-breeding. Though suitable bulls have been placed at the disposal of District Boards, they are seldom used, and even when used the value of the good stock is often lost owing to neglect of the cow or the calf. The question of feeding is of the greatest moment, but little attention is ordinarily paid to it. The cultivator may in time be persuaded that the benefits to be secured by greater care in such matters are worth the extra expenditure which is involved, but it will require protracted demonstration on the part of the Agricultural Department and its allies to achieve this result.

The Governor in Council is, however, satisfied that the Director of Agriculture and the officers of the Veterinary Department are giving this vital question the attention it deserves, and His Excellency recognizes that progress must inevitably be slow.

9. Only 245 animals were sent for treatment to the Bengal Veterinary College in connection with cases under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act during the year, though nearly 15,000 prosecutions were instituted under the Act. The Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, again draws attention to the futility of punishing owners by nominal fines only, without compelling them to have their animals treated, with the natural consequence that unfit animals are put to work again immediately the trial is over. The remedy for this evil lies in the hands of the trying Magistrates.

10. The Governor in Council desires to acknowledge his appreciation of the services of Major Smith, the Principal of the College, and of Mr. Kerr, the Superintendent of the Veterinary Department. The opinions expressed by these officers regarding the work of their subordinates have been duly noted.

By order of the Governor in Council,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

IRRIGATION DEPARTMENT.

Dated Darjeeling, the 20th October 1913.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

Letter No. 151, dated the 8th May 1913, from Mr. O. C. Lees, Special Officer deputed to prepare a project for the proposed canal for inland steamers and boats from Hooghly to Bidyadhari river.

Minutes of the conference held on the 2nd July 1913 to consider the above report of Mr. Lees on the deterioration of the Bidyadhari river.

DURING his investigation in connection with the project for a proposed canal from the Hooghly to the Bidyadhari river, Mr. O. C. Lees has found that there has been serious deterioration of the Bidyadhari river during the last few years. Cross sections taken at the same sites as those taken in 1904 disclosed the fact that, at a short distance below Bamanghatta, the bed of the river had risen by nearly 25 feet during the last eight years and that its sectional area below the high water level of ordinary neap tides had contracted during that period by 3,870 s. ft., giving a mean rate of contraction of 480 s. ft. per annum. The cross sectional area at this section below the mean level of high water at neap tides is now only 2,400 s. ft. Mr. Lees was of opinion that these facts showed that if the silting continued at the same rate, the bed of the river at this place would in some five years' time rise to neap tide high water level and would then be quite useless as an outfall for the sewage of Calcutta.

2. This situation was clearly a very serious one, and, after carefully considering the question whether, by re-opening some of the inlets, as well as by restoring a part of the original spill area, it would be possible to stop such deterioration, Mr. Lees expressed the opinion that the time had passed for the adoption of such measures, which were likely to prove costly and unsatisfactory, and, with a view to prevent the river from being completely choked up, which would greatly interfere with the disposal of the surface drainage of Calcutta and other neighbouring areas, he proposed in his report of the 8th May 1913, on the condition of the Bidyadhari, to canalize the upper portion of the Bidyadhari and the Peali, down to its lower end below Port Canning, by throwing one cross dam on the Bidyadhari, a little below the offtake of the Peali, and another on the Peali at its lower end below Port Canning with a drainage sluice at that point. This would create a closed channel extending from Dhappa to the mouth of the Peali below Port Canning. It would not then, however, be possible for the Corporation of Calcutta to use the canalized rivers as an outfall for crude sewage, and it would be necessary for them to treat the sewage by some septic or other process in order to render the effluent innocuous. Failing such treatment, the only alternative would be to carry the sewage 14 miles further east and discharge it into the Kulti river, or to the south below Port Canning to discharge it into the Mutlah.

3. A copy of Mr. Lees' report of the 8th May 1913 was forwarded to the Chairman of the Calcutta Corporation on the 24th idem, and it was suggested that the Chairman should confer with Mr. O. C. Lees on the subject and favour Government with his proposals.

4. In the month of June the Chairman requested Government to arrange for an early consultation between the responsible Engineers of Government and some members of the Corporation, and a conference was accordingly held on the 2nd July 1913, at which the following officers of Government and representatives of the Corporation were present :—

The Hon'ble Mr. S. L. Maddox, Chairman, Calcutta Corporation.
The Hon'ble Mr. B. K. Finnimore, Chief Engineer.
Mr. O. C. Lees, C.S.I.
Rai A. P. Sircar Bahadur, Superintending Engineer.
Mr. F. A. A. Cowley, Deputy Secretary.
Mr. C. Addams-Williams, Executive Engineer.
Mr. Ball Hill, Chief Engineer, Calcutta Corporation
Mr. Wyness.
Rai K. C. Banerjee Bahadur.

5. At this conference various points as to the causes of rapid deterioration of the Bidyadhari and the remedial measures that may possibly be taken to prevent or retard such deterioration were discussed. It was agreed that further observations for at least one year should be made to ascertain more definitely the probable life of the river, and that cross sections should be recorded by the Chief Engineer of the Corporation, with the assistance of the Superintending Engineer, South-Western Circle, to show its actual condition. In the meantime possible schemes for abandoning the present outfall and disposing of the sewage and storm water otherwise should be considered and the cost ascertained. It was suggested that the question of the disposal of the drainage of Calcutta be settled by a Committee to be nominated by Government, and that the question of the treatment of the sewage should be considered by a Committee consisting of the Health Officer, the Chief Engineer of the Corporation and officers of the Sanitary Department of Government. It was also recommended that Mr. Amar Nath Das, Executive Engineer, should be deputed to make the necessary enquiries to ascertain whether it is possible to open out any creeks or khals now closed for purposes of fishery. The necessary instructions for deputing Mr. Das on this work have already been issued.

6. The following Committee is accordingly appointed to consider the disposal of the drainage of Calcutta :—

President :

The Chief Engineer, Irrigation Department.

Members :

The Sanitary Engineer, Bengal.

Mr. C. Addams-Williams, Officiating Superintending Engineer, South-Western Circle.

Mr. A. N. Das, Executive Engineer, Circular and Eastern Canals Division.

The Chief Engineer of the Corporation.

Rai K. C. Banerjee Bahadur, Commissioner, Calcutta Corporation.

The points to be dealt with by the Committee will be—

(1) Whether, in the event of the Bidyadhari river silting up or being canalized, it will be feasible to dispose of the sewage and storm water of Calcutta, by creating an outfall at Kulti or Mutlah river below Port Canning.

(2) Whether, if the Committee do not consider any such scheme to be feasible or advisable, any other scheme can be suggested by them for the disposal of the drainage of Calcutta.

The Committee should submit a rough plan illustrating any scheme that they may recommend for adoption together with a preliminary estimate of the probable cost of carrying it out.

7. To consider the most suitable method of treating the sewage of Calcutta and to prepare a rough estimate of the initial and recurring cost of any scheme that may be recommended for this purpose, the following Committee is also appointed :—

President :

Major Clemesha, Sanitary Commissioner. Bengal.

Members :

The Sanitary Engineer, Bengal.
The Chief Engineer, Calcutta Corporation.
The Health Officer, Calcutta.

This Committee must also report whether in their opinion there will be any objection, from a sanitary point of view, to discharging the sewage, thus treated, into the canalized Bidyadhari, the water of which will be connected with the proposed Grand Trunk Canal passing through parts of the southern suburbs of Calcutta.

8. These two Committees should meet and start work with the least possible delay and should submit their reports direct to Government for consideration in the first instance.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette and that a copy thereof and of the minutes of the conference held on the 2nd July 1913 be submitted to the Government of India, Public Works Department, for information.

Ordered also that copies of the Resolution and of the minutes of the conference be forwarded to the Municipal Department of this Government; Chairman of the Calcutta Corporation; Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal; Mr. C. Addams-Williams; Mr. A. N. Das; and the Sanitary Engineer, Bengal.

By order of the Governor in Council,

A. P. SIRCAR,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

MONTHLY WEATHER AND CROP REPORT OF BENGAL FOR SEPTEMBER 1913.

I. Character of the season.—During the month under review light to moderate rain fell nearly all over the Province. The fall was above the normal in Murshidabad, Rajshahi, Dinajpur, Jalpaiguri, Rangpur, Bogra, Mymensingh, Chittagong and Cooch Behar. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Transplanting of winter rice and harvesting of autumn rice were almost finished. Harvesting, steeping and washing of jute were in brisk progress and were nearing completion. Preparation of lands for rabi crops was taken in hand during the latter part of the month.

III. State of standing crops.—The flood-water having subsided and the weather having turned favourable, the state of the standing crops greatly improved.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn of harvests.—The outturn of jute and autumn rice was fairly good in East Bengal, but in West Bengal the outturn of those crops was not satisfactory. Prospects of winter rice were hopeful throughout the Province excepting in the flooded tracts in the Burdwan Division.

V. Damage to crops.—The standing crops recovered somewhat from the injurious effect of the excessive rain and floods of the previous months; no further damage to any appreciable extent was done during the month either by insect-pest or by any other natural causes.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of agricultural stock was still reported to be bad in the flood-affected areas; elsewhere the condition was fair. Cattle-disease was found to be prevalent in parts of the districts of Nadia, Murshidabad, Khulna, Burdwan, Bankura, Dinajpur, Darjeeling, Malda and Chittagong.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—Want of fodder was felt in parts of Jessore, Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah and Bogra.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month under review, the price of common rice rose in six districts, also fell in six and remained stationary in the rest. It varied from 5 seers 8 chittacks per rupee in Rangpur to 9 seers 8 chittacks a rupee at Bankura.

IX. Condition of agricultural people.—The condition of agricultural population was fairly good excepting in the flooded tracts of the Burdwan Division. Large sums of money were paid in each district in gratuitous relief and agriculturists' loans to ameliorate the distressed condition of the people.

REPORT ON THE WORKING OF THE LICENSED JUTE WAREHOUSE AND FIRE BRIGADE ACT, 1912-13.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 833T.M.—The 18th October 1913.—The following is published for general information.

W. S. MILNE.
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. $\frac{\text{F.B. } 49-13}{949}$, dated Calcutta, the 15th July 1913.

From—SIR FREDERICK HALLIDAY, KT., C.I.E., M.V.O., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Dept.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the annual report on the working of the Calcutta Fire Brigade in the Town, Suburbs and Howrah during the year ending 31st March 1913, i.e., 1912-13.

Dated Calcutta, the 2nd June 1913.

From—SIR FREDERICK HALLIDAY, KT., C.I.E., M.V.O., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta.

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Dept.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the report of the Chief Officer of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the financial year ending 31st March 1913.

I beg to point out in this connection that the procedure adopted in previous years has been so far modified in that I am forwarding a copy of Mr. Westbrook's report in original instead of myself submitting a report on facts as supplied me by the Chief Officer. In adopting this procedure I venture to think I am not contravening the provision of section 41, Act I of 1893, the Fire Brigade Act, and at the same time I am placing the facts before Government in probably a more direct manner than I could myself do as the subject is to some extent a technical one.

The most salient features in the report are—

(1) The decrease in the total estimated value of property destroyed by fire in spite of the increase in the number of fires, the difference being about ten lakhs of rupees as compared with last year. This is principally due to the decrease in the number of large jute fires, which is again due to the fact that such jute fires as have occurred were not allowed to assume very serious proportions.

(2) The difficulty experienced in recruiting the right class of Indian fireman. This matter is receiving attention, and is dealt with in the Reorganization Report.

(3) The unsatisfactory accommodation available at Lall Bazar, Chitpore, Howrah and other out-stations for the needs of a growing Brigade.

(4) The Corporation have taken up the question of defective hydrants and have employed a special staff to rectify matters.

(5) The unsatisfactory condition of fire protection at theatres and places of public amusement.

(6) The question of reorganization is now before Government in the form of a final report by the Special Committee appointed by Government in 1910. The subject is a complicated one and action has already been taken by Government by introducing certain improvements on an ad-interim report submitted by the Committee in 1911. The question could not be taken up completely until the receipt of a report by the Chief Officer, who arrived in India in February 1912 and submitted his report in June 1912.

(7) There has been a satisfactory decrease in the number of fires occurring in warehouses licensed under the Fire Brigade Act which are now periodically inspected by an officer of the Fire Brigade.

In conclusion I venture to think that a distinct advance has been made in placing the Fire Brigade on a footing commensurate with the importance and wealth of Calcutta. Much of course remains to be done, but the reorganization has been started on good lines and progress in the future should be persistent and more rapid. My thanks are due to Mr. Westbrook for his unremitting efforts and the ability he has shown in managing his Department and the staff. Two officers of the Fire Brigade, Messrs. Friederich and Little, received the King's Police Medal during the year for gallant work at fires.

Dated Calcutta, the 18th April 1913.

From—BERNARD A. WESTBROOK, ESQ., Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, Calcutta,

To—The Commissioner of Police, Calcutta.

I HAVE the honour to present the following report on the work of the Fire Department for the year ended the 31st day of March 1913.

2. Financial Statement.—The Financial Statement is shewn in Appendix I together with remarks on the receipts and expenditure, also the payments made by the Municipalities.

3. Calls.—During the year under review the Brigade has received 194 calls to fires, or supposed fires, being an increase of 37 as compared with the previous year, and distributed as follows, excluding false alarms :—

117 Calcutta.	20 Docks and River.
14 Chitpore and Cossipore.	2 Outside the city and municipal areas, but within 6 miles of Head-quarters.
21 Howrah.
6 Manicktolla.
10 Garden Reach.

Of the above, eight fires occurred in premises licensed under the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act, I of 1893, as compared with 19 in 1911-12.

In the appendix will be found summaries showing the hourly and daily calls and calls for every day and month throughout the year.

4. Fire Loss.—The total estimated value of property destroyed by fire is Rs. 5,80,796 as compared with:—

	Rs.		Rs.
1911-12	... 15,78,507	1908-09	... 20,71,151
1910-11	... 13,52,620	1907-08	... 12,15,521
1909-10	... 15,66,780

Although the actual number of fires was greater than in any previous year, no fire was allowed to assume really serious proportions, and the fire loss was correspondingly small.

5. Classification of fires and calls—

False alarms.	Called to collapse of a house.	Under Rs. 100.	Rs. 100 to Rs. 1,000.	Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 5,000.	Rs. 5,000 to Rs. 20,000.	Rs. 20,000 to Rs. 50,000.	Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 1,00,000.	Rs. 1,00,000 to Rs. 2,00,000.	Over Rs. 2,00,000.	Total calls.
	1	131	33	13	6	4	1	1	1	194

6. Summary of means by which fires were extinguished.—

By individual members of the Fire Brigade (not necessitating the use of engines), street hydrants, loca. police, occupiers or neighbours.	By one motor fire-engine.	By one motor pump and one or more steamers.	One steam fire-engine.	One steam fire-engine and fire float.	One steamer and one manual.	Manual engine.	Fire float only.
103	33	20	21	3	2	6	1

One fire necessitated the use of 2 motor fire-engines, 3 steam fire-engines and fire float, and one fire, 1 motor fire-engine, 1 steam fire-engine and fire float.

On five occasions the fire float, and on four occasions the steam fire-engine (both belonging to the Port Commissioners) rendered assistance at fires occurring at the Docks, river or in close proximity to the river.

7. Reports of fires.—Appendix II shows short reports of the most noteworthy fires.

8. Appliances.—Appendix V shows the distribution of the various appliances in commission by the Brigade.

In April last a 25 H.P. "Standard" motor Chassis was purchased, and the body built for same in the Fire Brigade workshops.

This machine is fitted with hook ladders and appliances for dealing with a fire in its early stages. It is stationed at Head-quarters, and on many occasions has proved exceedingly useful.

Amongst other small appliances purchased are two smoke helmets which form very useful assets, particularly in ship, jute and cotton fires, also 12 hook ladders and 10,000 feet of canvas hose.

The fire float stationed at Fort Point on the river Hooghly is under the control of the Port Commissioners. This float has a pumping capacity of 1,250 gallons per minute, a length of 120 feet, and a draught of 8 feet 6 inches.

Owing to the deep draught it cannot approach sufficiently near the shore to be of great material assistance until after considerable delay. It is of an old pattern and does not meet the present requirements of the river and port.

As much valuable property adjoins the river and a great deal of shipping has to be protected, it is hoped that a more suitable float will be acquired at at an early date.

As the float is not directly under the control of the Fire Department, efficient working and co-operation cannot always be obtained, although during the past year every assistance has been rendered by the Port Commissioners with both fire float and steam fire-engine.

9. Boiler Surveys.—The usual surveys of boilers have been held during the year by the Government Inspector and certificates granted.

10. Staff.—The total present strength of the Fire Brigade staff, including all hands, is 23 Europeans and 204 Indians, making a total of 227 in all. Appendix VI shows how this staff is distributed.

The discipline and general behaviour during the year under review has been very satisfactory.

Considerable difficulty is experienced in recruiting the right class of Indian Fireman on the pay as at present offered.

Twelve men have been granted certificates to drive and take charge of motor fire-engines, and twelve men have passed examinations as to their proficiency in the management of steam fire-engines.

11. Horses.—The sanctioned number of horses for the Fire Brigade is 30. They are shod and medically treated for minor ailments by the Fire Brigade staff.

Six horses have been sent to the Bengal Veterinary College for treatment and have been discharged cured.

During the year 1 horse died, leaving a total of 29 horses at the close of the year.

12. Awards.—For gallantry in saving life at a fire which occurred on the 9th day of November 1911 at No. 108, China Bazar Street, Assistant Engineer Adolf Fredrich and Fireman James Little were awarded the King's Police Medal.

Several awards have been made to the Fire Brigade during the year for good work and, with the usual sanction, have been distributed amongst the men concerned.

13. Buildings.—The stations are enumerated in Appendix V. Attention must again be called to the very unsatisfactory buildings which comprise the head-quarters of the Fire Brigade at Lall Bazar, also to the non-existence of suitable buildings at the out-stations.

14. Brigade Workshops.—A large amount of work has been done in the Brigade workshops in keeping the appliances in good order The workshops are incommodious and inconvenient, and, in order to be able to cope with the amount of work properly fitted, and more spacious workshops are urgently required.

Practically all the repairs to the appliances and buildings have been carried out by the Brigade.

15. Fatalities.—During the year only one fatality occurred at fires as compared with six in the previous year. This happened on the 22nd day of March 1913 at No. 23, Sooterkin's Lane. Three Indians were sitting in a shop when a large case of kerosine oil caught fire and exploded, severely burning the three men. On arrival of the Brigade first aid was rendered and the injured men were removed to hospital, one dying the same evening.

16. Collapse of house.—On the 9th day of June 1912 the Brigade was called to No. 19-1-1, Goabagan Street, where a house had collapsed, fatally injuring two Indians. The bodies were extracted, and all dangerous walls, etc., pulled down.

17. Accidents.—I am pleased to be able to report that no serious accidents have occurred to members of the Brigade during the past year.

18. Water-supply.—The water used by the Fire Brigade is obtained from the street mains within the jurisdiction of the Calcutta Corporation. The pressure maintained is inadequate for fire-fighting purposes. and has to be augmented by the use of Fire Brigade pumps on almost every occasion. Considerable difficulty is experienced owing to the foreign substances in the mains, but it is hoped that improvements will shortly be made.

Frequent inspections of hydrants are being made by the Fire Brigade, and the defects found are reported to the authorities concerned.

In many districts where mains are not laid, notably Howrah, Chitpur, Garden Reach and Maniktala a serious state of affairs exists, as the only means of obtaining water is from tanks, many of which are now being filled up on sanitary grounds.

19. Telephone and Electrical Communications.—The want of an up-to-date system of calling the Fire Brigade in case of fire is badly felt, on many occasions late calls being received and difficulty experienced.

The only methods of communicating with the Fire Brigade at the present time is by private telephones, telephones in police-stations and verbal messages. but it is anticipated that street fire alarms will shortly be installed.

Several Government and other buildings are in direct connection with the Fire Brigade for fire protection purposes. Many other buildings comprising dangerous risks have been advised to install direct communication and probably will shortly do so.

20. Inspection Department and Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act (I of 1893).—Regular and systematic inspections of all warehouses licensed under the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act, 1 of 1893, are now carried out by the Fire Brigade.

Unfortunately under the Act the Fire Brigade is unable to enforce the installation of private fire appliances in existing buildings, but in many cases suggestions for fire protection and prevention have been made, and it is fairly satisfactory to note that in 41 instances these suggestions have been carried out during the year under review.

One thousand five hundred and seventy-six warehouses were licensed at the commencement of the year, fifty-one fresh licenses have been granted. and one hundred and three Cancellations have taken place, making a net total of one thousand five hundred and eight.

Many of the larger warehouses are fitted with private fire-installations, sprinklers, fire doors, etc.

Two hundred and eleven prosecutions have taken place in cases where the Act has been contravened, and in 183 instances fines varying from Re. 1 to Rs. 20 have been inflicted.

Thirteen special surveys of Government buildings, Public Institutions, Schools, etc.. have been made and schemes drafted for fire protection and prevention.

The work of the Inspection Department is rapidly increasing, and it is hoped that an extra Inspector will shortly be appointed.

21. Theatres and places of public amusement—During the year only one fire has taken place in theatres. This fire occurred in the operating box of a Cinematograph Theatre.

In many cases the theatres, etc., in Calcutta and suburbs are of a very dangerous nature. The Act does not give the Fire Department any jurisdiction concerning this class of risk, but it is hoped that it will be amended in order to avoid the danger of a serious catastrophe.

22. Fire-work Licenses, etc.—Three licenses were granted under Section 36 Act I of 1893 to let off fire-works, rockets, etc. No persons were prosecuted under Act IV of 1884, during the year under review.

23. Reorganization.—My report on the requirements of the Fire Department has been prepared and was presented early in August to the Fire Brigade Reorganization Committee appointed by Government under the presidency of the Hon'ble Mr. J. G. Cumming, C.I.E., I.C.S.

This Committee has met on several occasions and thoroughly discussed the report, the result of which will shortly be made public.

24. General.—The Fire Brigade protects the municipalities of Calcutta, Cossipore-Chitpur, Howrah, Garden Reach and Manicktolla, and may attend fires outside the jurisdiction of these municipalities (but not exceeding a radius of 6 miles from the Central Fire Station), provided fire appliances can be spared, and on payment of a prescribed fee.

On 27th September 1912 a call was received from a fire in the Dunbar Cotton Mills, a distance of about 19 miles from the Fire Brigade Headquarters, but in accordance with the Government order prohibiting the Brigade from attending fires at a greater distance than 6 miles, the Brigade was unable to render assistance.

On the 7th day of November the first annual sports and exhibitions given by the Calcutta Fire Brigade were held in the presence of His Excellency Lord Carmichael, Governor of Bengal, who took a keen interest in the work.

It is interesting to note that, although the number of fires has considerably increased, only eight took place in premises licensed under the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act, 1 of 1893, against 19 in the previous year. It is undoubtedly partly owing to this fact that the amount of the fire loss is small.

During the year a drill class has been formed for the purpose of training recruits. All hands are passed through this course of instruction which is having the desired effect in increasing the efficiency and improving the general working of the Brigade.

Ambulance classes have been formed and are now in progress. These classes are being attended by all members of the European staff who have not qualified in ambulance work.

On many occasions first-aid has been rendered by individual members of the Fire Brigade in Calcutta.

A code of signals has been arranged and adopted by the Fire Brigade for use at fires, and special care is being taken to teach the officers and men the topography of the city and suburbs.

Special precautions were taken for the protection from fire of the large Charity Fête which took place in November 1912 at Belvedere.

APPENDIX I.

Statement showing receipts and expenditure of the Fire Brigade for 1912-13.

THE year opened with a balance of Rs. 82,304-12-5; the receipts amounted to Rs. 1,70,768-8-9 and the total expenditure to Rs. 2,07,521-3-3, leaving a balance of Rs. 45,552-1-11 at the close of the year.

RECEIPTS.

Fees under the Petroleum Act show an increase of Rs. 71 over the estimate. No judicial fines were realized under the Act, and the sale-proceeds of unserviceable stores show an increase of Rs. 2,803-8-9 over the estimate. The receipts during the year for hire of engine amount to Rs. 300, the net result being an actual increase in receipts over the estimate by Rs. 2,774-8-9.

EXPENDITURE.

Under head "Establishment" there was a decrease of Rs. 7,575-8 due mainly to vacancies existing in the rank of tindals and khallassis.

The total expenditure under head "Contingencies" amounted to Rs. 1,22,087-8-7 against a budget grant of Rs. 1,01,516, showing an increase of Rs. 20,571-8-7. The increase is due mainly to the following reasons:—

(a) The sum of Rs. 12,726-7-9, being the cost of the motor fire engine purchased during 1911-12 out of the available balance from the sum of Rs. 45,000 provided in the budget for 1910-11 for the purchase of motor engines and motor tender, was paid during the year.

(b) The sum of Rs. 9,069 sanctioned by Government for reconstruction of Sibpur fire station was paid to the Public Works Department during the year.

Rupees 6,500 provided in the budget of 1911-12 for the work remained unexpended at the close of that year owing to the Public Works Department not having taken the work in hand.

(c) The sum of Rs. 2,900 provided in the budget of 1911-12, on account of purchase of a motor chassis in place of two horse-drawn brakes was expended during the year 1912-13, the motor chassis having been purchased during the year under review, and the body built and fitted by the Fire Brigade staff.

Under head "Other charges" there was a decrease of Rs. 468-13-4 due mainly to savings under head "Water pressure."

ESTABLISHMENT OF A MINING INSTITUTE.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

EDUCATION.

DARJEELING, THE 27TH OCTOBER 1913.

RESOLUTION No. 2485T.—G.

READ—

A letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, No. 15904, dated the 12th December 1912.

READ also—

A report from the Mining Advisory Board.

A proposal has for some time past been under the consideration of this Government for the establishment of an Institute of Mining and for the further expansion and development of the existing system of evening classes for mining at Asansol. A similar suggestion was made by Lieutenant-Colonel Atkinson and Mr. Dawson in Chapter 16 of their Report on Technical Institutions. Meanwhile, the question of mining instruction in the colliery districts has been engaging the attention of the Government of Bihar and Orissa, who have consulted the Chief Inspector of Mines and the Colliery owners of the leading Giridih and Jherria Coalfields; and the Mining and Geological Institute of India have passed certain resolutions on the subject.

The outcome of these discussions has been a general consensus of opinion that a single mining institute, located probably at Asansol or Dhanbaid, should be established for the two Provinces, and that the evening classes should at the same time be developed.

2. It appears to the Governments of the two Provinces of Bengal and Bihar and Orissa that, for a final and satisfactory determination of this question and for the preparation of a definite scheme, the assistance of a Joint Committee of the two Provinces is required, on which mining interests should be largely represented. It has accordingly been decided to appoint the following gentlemen to be the President and Members of the Committee :—

(1) The Hon'ble Mr. D. J. Macpherson, C.I.E.—President.
(2) Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.
(3) Director of Public Instruction, Bihar and Orissa.
(4) Director of Geological Survey.
(5) Chief Inspector of Mines in India.
(6) Inspector of Schools, Chota Nagpur Division.
(7) Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur.
(8) Principal, Engineering School, Patna.
(9) Professor of Mining Engineering, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur.
(10) Mr. W. A. Ironside of Messrs. Bird & Co., and Chairman of the Indian Mining Association.
(11) The Hon'ble Mr. W. A. Lee, senior partner in the firm of Messrs. W. A. Lee & Co.
(12) Mr. A. A. Agabeg, Managing Proprietor of Messrs. Agabeg Brothers, Jogta Colliery.
(13) Mr. Glen George, A.M.I.C.E., Chief Mining Engineer, Bengal Coal Co., Ltd.
(14) Mr. T. Adamson, General Manager, Indian Collieries Syndicate, Limited.
(15) Babu N. N. Mukharji, Agent, Khas Jheria Coal Company's Fularibad Colliery.
(16) Mr. W. H. Everett, Superintendent of Industries and Inspector of Technical and Industrial Institutions, Bengal—Secretary.

3. The Committee should advise on the scope, designation, and location of the institution and should draw up a scheme for its establishment and maintenance. Special attention should be given to the subjects to be taught, the class of students to be catered for and the standard of general education to be required of those seeking admission. The Committee should also consider how the evening classes may be developed and made more useful and should discuss generally the whole problem of mining education in the coalfields and the best method of supervising both the working of the school and the other forms of instruction.

It will also be open to the Committee to consider, if they so think fit, the scheme for the establishment of a School of Mines on a more elaborate scale on the lines formulated in the Report of Lieutenant-Colonel Atkinson and Mr. Dawson.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to each member of the Committee for information.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Governor in Council,

W. S. MILNE,
Offg. Secy. to the Government of Bengal.

DARJEELING, THE 25TH OCTOBER 1913.

RESOLUTION No. 4425P.—D.

THE Governor in Council, with the concurrence of the Government of India, has decided to appoint a Committee to examine the conditions prevailing in the districts of Bengal.

2. The constitution of the Committee will be as follows :—

The Hon'ble Mr. Edward Vere Levinge, C.S.I., Member of Council, Government of Bihar and Orissa—President.

Mr. Harrington Verney Lovett, C.S.I., Commissioner of the Benares Division, United Provinces.

The Hon'ble Mr. Nicholas Dodd Beatson Bell, C.I.E., Commissioner of the Dacca Division, Bengal.

Mr. Charles Ernest Low, C.I.E., Deputy Commissioner, Central Provinces.

Mr. Kiran Chandra De, Magistrate and Collector, Bengal.

Mr. Edmond Nicholas Blandy, I.C.S., Bengal—Secretary to the Committee.

The services of the officers who belong to the provinces other than Bengal have been placed by the Government of India at the disposal of the Bengal Government.

3. The terms of reference to the Committee are as follows :—

to examine the conditions prevailing in the districts of Bengal; to compare them with those existing in other provinces (more particularly in those areas in which the land revenue is permanently settled); and to report in what respects the administrative machinery can be improved, whether by the reduction of inordinately large charges, by the creation of new subordinate agencies, or otherwise with the special object of bringing the executive officers of Government into closer touch with the people.

4. His Excellency in Council anticipates that much benefit will result from the investigation of this Committee. The Committee will assemble early in November 1913 and will visit such areas as may seem desirable. The Governor in Council desires that all officers in Bengal will promptly afford the Committee such information or assistance as it may require.

By order of the Governor in Council.

J. G. CUMMING,

Offg. Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.
